

PLAN BIG GUNS TO INSURE PEACE

New Fort and Heavy Rifles in Greater San Francisco Scheme.

Added protection of the bay cities from sea attack is promised by the war department at Washington, D. C., in dispatches issued today announcing that Fort Barry and a new fort to be located at the Lake Merced have been selected as the points at which additional high power guns are to be placed by the government. At these points artillery is to be installed that will practically double the range of the largest of the guns at present mounted.

Two sixteen-inch rifles, able to hurl shells 24,000 yards to sea, will constitute the first armament of the Lake Merced fort. Two 12-inch howitzers will be installed at Fort Barry. These howitzers, shooting like mortars, will be able to drop shells on the decks of warships 30,000 yards off shore. The new guns will have a shooting range equal to that of the largest naval guns, and will therefore be deemed sufficient to hold off any attacking fleet which might stand off and attempt to bombard the city.

The Lake Merced fort is to be established on a military reservation of forty acres, which is in a position to command the entrance to San Francisco harbor. The high-power rifles at Fort Barry will take care of the north shore.

Large Sum for State in Bill

Senate Now Has Harbor's Items

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The rivers and harbors appropriation bill carrying $40,000,000, passed by the House late yesterday by a vote of 210 to 133, went to the Senate today, where it is expected to meet with further opposition.

California appropriations in the bill are:

San Francisco harbor	$15,000
Oakland harbor	100,000
Los Angeles harbor	100,000
San Pablo bay	100,000
Humboldt harbor and bay	450,000
Redwood creek	10,250
San Joaquin river	11,000
Stockton and Mormon channels	10,000
Mokelumne river	500
Petaluma creek	30,000
Sacramento and Feather rivers	115,000

With an additional appropriation of $75,000, provided the state supplies an equal amount, in accordance with recommendations of the California debris commission, the total California appropriations are $1,904,250.

An amendment introduced by Chairman Sparkman of the rivers and harbors committee on behalf of the California Congressmen, providing for a survey of the San Joaquin river and the Stockton channel from the mouth of the river to Stockton, was passed.

Another amendment by Representative Baker providing for continuing the improvement of the Sacramento river up to Red Bluff was adopted.

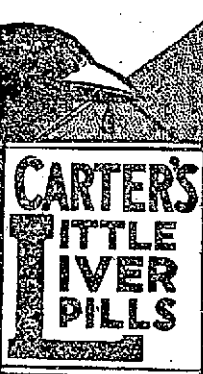

Mills Choir Will Sing With Church One

A musical service of interest will be given at Plymouth Congregational church Sunday evening, when the vested choir of Mills College, to the number of thirty, will combine with the church choir, under the direction of Alexander Stewart, in the rendition of Gounod's famous cantata "Missa." Mrs. J. E. Morris will sing the soprano solo part of the cantata and the organ and piano accompaniment will be played by William Gerhart and Miss Imogene Perry.

The women's voices of both choirs to the number of fifty will also sing Nieldinger's "Bye the Vectors of Babylon." Miss Helen Liel, a talented Los Angeles violinist, who is a student at Mills College, will play Viennese's celebrated reverie for violin with organ and piano accompaniment.

Sneaked Off to Sing Ciccolini Handicapped

CICCOLINI.

Tenor Was Discouraged by His Parents

Ciccolini, the young Italian tenor who is now at the Orpheum, was handicapped as a youngster because of the fact that his parents were well-to-do Romans and did not want their son to enter the hazardous occupation that so frequently means so little more, and sometimes less, than the supper little Tommy Tucker received for his efforts. But Ciccolini wanted to sing.

It was the ambition of his life and to succeed he got up at 5 o'clock in the morning and practiced daily. That's how he became a world-renowned tenor.

When Ciccolini was a lad he arose each morning at 5 o'clock the year round. But there was method in his "madness."

His parents did not permit him to sing in their home, so he had to go to the home of a neighbor to practice.

He devoted two hours each morning to his vocal lessons.

At school and later at home in the evenings he poured over the multiplication table, for his parents were particularly anxious for him to become an engineering expert.

But Ciccolini had certain ideas of his own and he was determined to put those ideas into effect.

He did, and that is one of the reasons why he now collects a salary of $2500 a week from the Orpheum circuit.

Works' Citrus Fruit Amendment Defeated

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The sugar tariff bill, passed in the Senate late yesterday by a vote of 40 to 32, went to a conference of the two Houses today, where a sharp controversy over the measure is in prospect.

An effort by Senator Works of California to amend the bill so as to increase the duty on lemons and other citrus fruits was defeated yesterday 44 to 29.

LOS ANGELES, April 12.—Republicans here today completed plans for the inauguration of their 1916 campaign, with the arrival of former Senator Theodore E. Burton, expected here Saturday.

SENATOR WORKS SCORES POLITICIANS

Denounces Effort to "Tempt" Hughes With Presidential Nomination.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Senator Works, Republican, today coupled an attack on the army bill with a denunciation of politicians, who, he declared, were trying to tempt Justice Hughes with a presidential nomination. "Partisan politics," declared the California Senator, "is ruthless in its demands and invades the most sacred precincts of the national government. It is seeking place and pelf and power wherever it can find entrance."

"Just now it is attempting to invade the Supreme Court of the United States. It is presenting to a member of that body the greatest temptation that could be offered to an American citizen—to surrender his place on the bench and become a candidate for political office. This attempt to bring the highest judicial tribunal of the country, or any member of it into politics should be resented not only by the member to whom the tempting offer is made but by the whole country."

"To my mind, it is of the gravest importance that the great tribunal should be separated absolutely and forever from politics, candidacy for office or any interest in elections beyond that of the disinterested and patriotic private citizen."

"Whether Justice Hughes is going to allow his name to be used as a candidate," said Senator Works, "is of profound interest and of great importance to the country at large. Whether one man or another is named at Chicago is of little importance compared with the question whether the name of the member of the Supreme Court can be used to advance the interest or secure the success of any political party."

Senator Works' remarks brought approval from Senator Thomas, Democrat, of Colorado.

"I think every word the Senator from California uttered on this subject is unanswerable," he said.

SENATE CALLS FOR DANIELS LETTERS

WASHINGTON, April 12.—"The controversy between Secretary Daniels and Rear Admiral Bradley A. Fiske, former aide for operations, took a new turn today when the Senate adopted without discussion a resolution by Senator Lodge calling for correspondence which Fiske declined to produce before the House committee during hearings on the naval appropriation bill."

The resolution describes the letters as written to the secretary in November, 1914, one by the rear admiral and one by Admiral Fiske. They are declared to contain warnings of the unreadiness of the navy for war.

Before the House committee the secretary was asked if he had not received such letters, following his statement that his differences with Admiral Fiske had not arisen over any preparedness issue. He said communications with the general board were confidential and would not produce the letter. He argued that if he knew members of the board were discussing confidential matters outside the department he would take steps to change its personnel. Admiral Fiske told the same committee he had resigned as aide for operations because he differed with Daniels over the navy's readiness for war.

In his testimony Secretary Daniels said the disagreement began with his failure to appoint Fiske commander of the Atlantic fleet, although Fiske had also disapproved vigorously the order doing away with navy officers' wine mess.

Napa County Voters to Hear Republicans

Walter B. Griffiths, chairman of the Napa County Central Committee, who was a visitor at the Republican headquarters in San Francisco yesterday, said that his committee arranged for a complete canvass of that county, which will be commenced today.

"We believe that the preservation of the Republican party in this state is of sufficient importance to every republican to warrant, yes, to demand the earnest effort of every right-thinking Republican," said Griffiths.

"And we propose to show to the Republicans of Napa county that the regular Republican ticket stands for the preservation of our party, not only in this state, but in the nation. We likewise propose to show them that the opposition to the regular ticket is merely factional."

FRESNO, April 12.—The opening gun of the presidential primary campaign in Fresno county will be fired tomorrow night at a big Republican mass meeting in this city, which is being sponsored by the Young Men's Republican Club of the county. The principal speaker will be Assemblyman L. B. Cary.

Elmhurst Republicans Organize for Rallies

Planning a lively campaign through the annexed district, in the interests of the regular Republican party, the Elmhurst Regular Republican Club formed a meeting last night at Kinell Hall, Ninety-third avenue and East Fourteenth street. Dr. George E. Davis presided, and was elected president of the organization. Mrs. E. U. Russell was named vice-president and Louis Hunt secretary.

A campaign committee, to outline work at once in covering the district, was named as follows: Frank Storer, P. J. Harrigan, Mrs. C. A. Fife, Mrs. Gertrude J. Williams and C. N. Cooper. Meetings will be planned shortly to hear the issues of the day discussed and to further the regular Republican work.

FLUSH KIDNEYS WITH SALTS IF BACK IS ACHING

Noted Authority Says We Eat
Too Much Meat, Which Clogs Kidneys.

Take Glass of Salts When Kidneys Hurt or Bladder Bothers You.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid, which clogs the kidneys; they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood; then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of stinging, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with alkali, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which every one should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Advertisement.

Frederick Hyde Wins Hearts of Convicts

Frederick A. Hyde, Attorney-at-Law.
That is what a sign over the door at 601 Eighteenth street announces. Frederick A. Hyde is much more than a mere attorney-at-law and a millionaire. With his million dollars and his culture and refinement, he has been in prison. He came out of prison with much more than he took in with him. He came out with understanding, sympathy for the troubled ones in prisons. So that sign should read:

"Frederick A. Hyde, Friend of the Friendless and Attorney-at-Law." From the warden of the United States penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., today came word that a generous-

U. S. Suspicious Of Signatures on Old Land Claims

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—The homesteaders of thousands of persons in California, Texas and other states depend today on the ability of modern science to prove whether "C. P. Carpenter" and "George S. Jones" are fictitious persons.

If they are found to be merely names used by F. A. Hyde, who recently finished a prison sentence for defrauding the government out of lands, the hundreds of thousands of acres involved will undoubtedly be turned back to the government and the people who innocently purchased the land will be losers.

The test case to decide this question is now before J. B. Sanford, register of the United States land office. The securing of testimony has consumed four years. Branch hearings have been held in years past in Texas, Utah and other states, and transcripts of the testimony are now in Sanford's hands.

When the Hyde expose came to light some time ago, charged jointly with him were "Carpenter" and "Jones." No suggestion has ever been made that the names have been found to be mere names signed to homestead entries.

Science has been called in to prove them fictitious. Theodore Kyka, handwriting expert, after weeks of study of the handwriting of Hyde, declares that the names "Carpenter" and "Jones" were written by the same hand.

Several weeks will be necessary before a decision is reached.

HYDE IS SEEN.
F. A. Hyde, when seen here this morning, said:

"C. P. Carpenter and George S. Jones purchased two sections of land from the state of California, about eighteen years ago. In the course of business I bought their titles. The lands they bought were in forest reserves. The lands were decided to the government and other lands were selected in lieu thereof. The question was whether or not the department will accept those selections. The rule of the department now is that the burden of proof is on the selector. The transactions occurred so long ago and so many people disappeared from San Francisco after the fire that the selectors are not able to find these two men. It is a matter I have no interest in whatever and the selected lands are of no particular value. The thing is ancient history. The testimony before the register of the land office is thereby to give these men, an opportunity to prove the selections, which they naturally cannot do because the thing was closed up so many years ago.

"The actual validity of the titles purchased from Jones and Carpenter are not involved. The only question is whether, in the absence of proof of their identity and of the bona fides of their purchases, the secretary will accept selections in lieu of their lands.

"The department requires the parties in interest to prove the identity of these people, but they can no more prove the existence of these people who made the purchases than the government can prove they were not in existence."

Young Dairyman Is Held for Observation

Antone Garcia, a 19-year-old farm hand of San Leandro, is held under observation at the Emergency hospital today as the result of his running amuck yesterday on the Brooks dairy near San Leandro and threatening others with a huge knife. Deputy Sheriff Joe Soares and Bert Brown were summoned to the ranch and arrived to find the residents in terror. Most of them had fled the place and did not return until Garcia was captured and securely strapped. He will be examined as to his sanity.

Change of Air Basis of Accident Suit

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—The State Industrial Accident Commission today filed a delicate medical problem. Mike Pribish, 55, Yale street, Los Angeles, 17-year-old boiler-maker, filed application for compensation. While riveting in a boiler last December, he declares, he was called from the interior into the cold air outside, causing him to lose the sight of one eye. He declares he is totally disabled as a result.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 12.—The Atlanta segregation ordinance, making it unlawful for negroes to move into city blocks in which the majority of residents are white, and carrying a like provision against whites moving into blocks largely inhabited by negroes, was signed by Mayor Woodward today. OFFICERS FIRE ON CAR; KILL WOMAN

Mistake Results in Tragedy;
Deputies Are Held for Slaying.

TUCSON, Ariz., April 12.—Mrs. J. S. Bates, wife of Captain James S. Bates, prominent resident of Tucson, was shot and fatally wounded near here late last night while returning with her husband in an automobile from a theater.

Joe Wiley and Tom Jones, deputy sheriffs, and a city policeman named Salazar have been detained pending an investigation.

Mistaking the occupants of the Bates car for persons involved in a robbery which they were detailed to investigate, the officers fired four shots were fired toward the swiftly moving car, in an effort to compel the driver to stop. One bullet struck Mrs. Bates, killing her almost instantly; another lodged in the trunk.

A woman giving the name of Mrs. Williams, and who was found at a local amusement park, had reported she had been robbed of $2000 worth of jewelry.

POWER COMPANY ENTERTAINS.
Frances H. Woodward, Oakland manager of the Great Western Power Company, entertained at the Hotel Oakland fifty-three employees last evening at a banquet. The party finished the evening as guests of the Oakland Commercial Club. Woodward was assisted by C. D. Mynard, W. S. Van Winkle, Errol C. Wilson and M. P. Morrison, department heads of the big hydro-electric company.

LOSS OF APPETITE

Most Successfully Treated by Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Loss of appetite is accompanied by loss of vitality, which is serious.

It is common in the spring because at this time the blood is impure and impoverished and fails to give the digestive organs what is absolutely necessary for the proper performance of their functions.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old reliable all-the-year-round medicine, is especially useful in the spring. Get it from your druggist today. By purifying and enriching the blood and giving vitality, vigor and tone, it is wonderfully successful in the treatment of loss of appetite and the other ailments prevalent at this time. It is not simply a spring medicine, but it is the best spring medicine.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the rich red blood the digestive organs need.—Advertisement.

Stomach Trouble

Due to Acidity

Stomach troubles, such as indigestion, wind and stomach-ache are simply evidence that fermentation is taking place in the food contents of the stomach, causing the formation of gas and acids. Wind distends the stomach, and causes that full, oppressive feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies entirely in the fermenting food. Such fermentation is unnatural, and acid formation is not only unnatural, but may involve more serious consequences if not corrected. To stop or prevent fermentation and to neutralize the acid, a teaspoonful of bisulphate of magnesia, probably the best and most effective corrector of acid stomach known, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of water immediately after eating, or whenever wind or acidity is felt. This stops the fermentation, and neutralizes the acidity in a few moments. Bisulphate of magnesia can be obtained from any druggist. It enables the stomach to do its work properly without being hindered by poisonous gas and dangerous acids.—Advertisement.

Philosophy in "Movies?" Yes! "Moral Fabric," Latest Example

LOUISE FAZENDA, POPULAR FILM COMEDIENNE, APPEARING IN A KEYSTONE COMEDY NOW PLAYING AT THE FRANKLIN.

Ince Film Feature, Remarkable Play, Still Points Moral

It is a matter of note that the movie patron is beginning more and more to relish philosophy as spice for his entertainment, and the number of plays having moral lessons in "little packages" for the audience to take home," as H. A. du Souchet used to say, is increasing by leaps and bounds. A film that may be taken as a signpost of this advance is "The Moral Fabric," a Thomas H. Ince-Triangle production now playing at the Franklin.

The theme of the story is the fallacy of the "free love" theory, and the play is a blow at the basic structure of the principle which the advocates of the "free love" propaganda profess to expound. The drama essays one solution of that most vital of present-day evils, discord between husband and wife over the latter not having enough to do. Its plot introduces for the diversion of the wife a handsome young clubman who has no immediate occupation beyond devouring the domestic happiness of his fellows.

W. S. Maughan, the eminent English dramatist, first labeled this "friction" of the wife, or apex of the eternal triangle, as "the lame cat" who purrs when you stroke him and stows the cream when you weren't looking. But C. Gardner Sullivan, author of the scenario of "The Moral Fabric," more consistently has called him "the Pekinese Poodle," because trifling women of wealth are more apt to keep poodles than cats, cats being proper furniture of the domestic fireside.

Sullivan has taken still another step beyond his British contemporary in conceiving a plot that causes the two weaker characters to undergo a complete change, and which presents the fallacies of their "free love" theory as they would work out in actual practice. He conceived the idea of the theme for his story after attending a lecture given by a "free thinker" organization.

Frank Mills handles the role of the husband in a masterly manner. Edith Reeves plays the wife and Howard Hickman appears as the "Pekinese Poodle."

On the same bill, Charles Murray and Louise Fazenda furnish an abundance of fun and humor in a Keystone comedy entitled, "A Love Riot."

Musicians' Club to Enjoy Talent Dinner

The dinner of the San Francisco Musicians' Club, which is to be held at Hotel Oakland Saturday evening, promises to be a notable gathering of the men of the musical profession of the bay communities. The Musicians' Club is a social organization of professionals and has been in existence for 28 years. Once a month during the season its members hold a dinner, usually across the bay.

The meeting Saturday will be devoted to a discussion of art in its relation to music. The principal speaker will be Eugen Neubaus of the University of California, who will speak upon the topic of the correlation of music and art. Robert Harsche, curator of the Oakland Public Museum, will also be present and speak upon the subject of art as a diversion. Bernard Maybeck, the noted architect, is also expected to be present as a guest of the club.

Boy Hit by Auto Has Chance for Recovery

Hopes are held out by physicians for the recovery of six-year-old Jack Cohen who received a fractured skull and a broken right leg and severe bruises yesterday when he ran from behind a train at Thirty-fourth and Louisa streets directly in front of another traveling in the opposite direction.

The boy was picked up by Gus Wagner, fire chief of Alameda, and taken in an automobile to the Emergency hospital where his injuries were attended. This morning it was reported by Dr. H. E. Franck that the patient has a good chance of recovery.

He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cohen, 1407 Thirty-fourth avenue.

SUSPAINS DENY MURDER.

Rontliwitt, Oakland realty dealer, to the grand jury indictment charging him with obtaining a signed note from Mrs. Mary Conderly of Corning under false pretenses, has been sustained by Superior Judge Ellison. The note is alleged to have been secured in payment for a lot in Berkeley.

PLAY "SHAKESPEARE NIGHT."
"Shakespeare Night" will be celebrated by the British-American League in Foresters' Hall, San Francisco, tomorrow evening, when members of the organization from both sides of the bay will participate. F. D. Brandon, P. Head and several others will speak on the life and works of the Bard of Avon.

The best recommendation, The strongest recommendation any article may receive is a favorable word from the user. It is the recommendation of those who have used it that makes Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so popular. Mrs. Amanda Stewart, Waverly, Ohio, writes: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my family off and on for twenty years and it has never failed to cure a cough or cold. Slew Employer for Wife, State Alleges PINE BLUFF, Ark., April 12.—Love for the wife of his employer caused T. S. Bradbury to assassinate P. O. Jenkins, a wealthy planter of Sheriff, on the night of December 26 last, declared Prosecuting Attorney T. G. Farham in his opening statement to the jury today in the trial of Bradbury on a charge of murder.

The prosecutor declared that he would prove that Bradbury and Mrs. Jenkins were on intimate terms. He said he would prove that only Bradbury, Mrs. Jenkins, or Will Martin, a negro house boy, could have killed Jenkins, and that he would prove Martin innocent.

The jury to try Bradbury was completed this morning. At the conclusion of the prosecutor's address, court was adjourned until tomorrow.

LOS ANGELES, April 12.—Charges and counter charges of a flat-iron having been hurled between them, was the grounds upon which Mrs. Ruth E. Badger sought a divorce, and her husband, John F. Badger, sought to prevent it, in Judge Wood's court today.

PORTLAND, April 12.—A course of lectures for janitors in public schools will be given under the auspices of the Portland School Board beginning April 22. In the view of the educators "janitoring" is an art, and should be done scientifically or not at all.

SLUGGISH SKIN SPELLS WOE CARDS' BEDTIME PREVENTION EASY, SAYS EXPERT STORY

Complexion Preparedness Urged by Miss Russell

A SLUGGISH skin means a poor complexion. It is easier to prevent than to cure sluggishness.

A very large percentage of complexion troubles arise from sluggish skins. In many instances this condition is entirely due to a lack of cleanliness. It is offensive to suggest cleanliness to most people. They are acutely sensitive when such a subject is mentioned, but often those who are most anxious to have a clean and clear skin fall in their purpose through ignorance.

It is neglect and lack of cleanliness that permits the skin to become sluggish. After it is once in this condition, there is a steady accumulation of dust and sebaceous matter to clog the pores and cause eruptions and blemishes. Blackheads are also products of sluggishness. The results cover a wide territory and none is pleasing.

Skin troubles are of many varieties and demand as many treatments—but there is a basic treatment for all. This consists of cleansing processes to keep the skin active and fully competent to perform its functions. When the skin is clean it is best able to care for itself.

Many women fail to realize that the skin demands a certain amount of exercise or stimulation to keep it vigorous and in a condition to meet the opposing influences with which it comes into contact. This stimulation is provided either in the ordinary process of bathing, or massaging, where more vigorous treatment is necessary. When the face is vigorously washed and cleansed at least once a day, massaging is not so essential to a good complexion. By either process sluggishness is prevented and the skin is kept in a condition to protect itself.

Suppose there are many women who pay a great deal of attention to the lotions and creams they apply to their skins and fail to appreciate the full values of ordinary bathing.

The skin is moist and especially these parts that are unprotected by clothing hold the dust particles that are dashed against it. You cannot expect full benefit from the application of creams and other preparations until the skin is freed from such foreign substance.

There is also an accumulation of particles of skin and waste, which clogs the pores and demands removal to keep the skin healthy. When the pores are clogged the elimination of waste and the intake of air both become impossible, and the action of the skin is greatly impaired. This causes the sluggishness that results in complexion troubles unless the skin is frequently cleansed.

There are several reasons why the skin should be thoroughly cleansed each night. I mention them because that is the best time for bathing. The cleansing process makes the skin tender, and going out of doors immediately after bathing is liable to cause roughness. Then, also, the body renews itself in sleep. Naturally, when you sleep with your cheeks and brow thoroughly clean, nature has its best opportunity to improve your complexion.

Bear in mind that a sluggish skin produces an ugly complexion and that this condition can be avoided by frequent bathing and massaging, which rid it of all foreign and waste substances. When the skin is perfectly cleansed the complexion is in a condition to derive the greatest benefits from both natural and artificial treatment. So do not forget that the face should be carefully and thoroughly cleansed at least once in twenty-four hours, and preferably at night.

Women in the News

NEW YORK, April 12.—The Union League Club, sacred to the leisure hours of men of wealth and social standing, was started out of its dignity yesterday afternoon by a vigorous scuffle, in which a woman was the storm center.

Mrs. Albert Gallatin Wheeler Jr., accompanied by her attorney and a deputy sheriff, invaded the club in search of her husband. The little party believed itself to be fortified with the authority of the Supreme Court.

But clubs have their privileges, and the Union League is a jealous upholder of them. Managers and flunkies set upon the invaders. Wheeler, whom his wife had seen, was spirited out of view. Mrs. Wheeler declares that she and her two escorts were ejected from the club with violence.

"At least ten attendants set upon us," she said. "I am not at all strong, having only just recovered from an attack of pneumonia, as they did not have much trouble in flinging me out. I was almost unrecognizably hurled into the street."

After the ejection the trio held a council of war. Mrs. Wheeler, an employee of Brown's, and the deputy sheriff thought they had better watch the doors of the club, in case Wheeler should attempt an exit.

This did not suit the club, either. Fifth avenue was full of persons and it excited remark for the Union League to be beleaguered by two men supporting a slender woman in black. Envoys went out to remonstrate with them. But Mrs. Wheeler was in more need of funds than of a large claim against Wheeler for unpaid alimony. So the vigil continued, but in vain.

Mrs. Wheeler, formerly Claudia Carstadt of Boston, was a performer in musical comedy when she married Albert Gallatin Wheeler Jr., son of the Chicago banker. As co-star with Frank Danile she was known as the girl in the red tights.

COUNTESS SZECHENYI IS IN AUSTRIAN RED CROSS.

LOXLEY, April 12.—The London Daily Express prints the following German dispatch:

The Countess Szechenyi, formerly Miss Lady's daughter, who was decorated by Emperor Francis Joseph for work with the Austrian Red Cross, has recovered from an attack of smallpox.

The Countess, who is an expert nurse, now wants to be employed at hospital stations near the front.

"She is spending large sums aiding Hungarian officers and men, and is totally attached to an ordinary nurse to the Austrian Red Cross."

FIANCE FIRES GIRL.

HELD AT ILLIS ISLAND.

MARTINEZ, April 12.—Detained at Ellis Island by Federal Immigration authorities, Eleonora Dekker Faber, daughter of a prosperous Amsterdam merchant, was today released upon receipt of information from County Clerk Jasper Zook that a marriage license had been issued to her and John Zook, an employee of the Shell Oil Company at this place.

Zook sent for his sweetheart some time ago to come to this country and be married. At Ellis Island Uncle Sam stopped her and temporarily halted the romance. He is now attached and the girl back to her parents. The bride-to-be sent a frantic appeal to her lover, and today Zook applied for and received the necessary license that would free the girl he loved and enable her to reach him.

AT BEDSIDE OF FATHER'S DEATH.

LANS, OREGON, April 12.—Miss Paula Bayer, member of a St. Louis touring party, fractured her skull in falling to the State highway pavement near here some days ago and lies in a critical condition in a sanatorium in this city. Her father, Charles Bayer, of Chesterfield, Mo., on hearing of the accident, telephoned doctors here and arranged for his one other child, Miss Camilla Bayer, to come here at once.

Shortly after her arrival here Miss Camilla Bayer today received a wire announcing the sudden death of her father in Missouri and the serious illness of her mother, who is an invalid.

The injured sister is in no condition to learn of her parent's death.

MRS. ELIZABETH MEARS DIED WITH PNEUMONIA.

PORTLAND, ORE., April 12.—B. C. Mears, prominent Portland timber man, is battling south on the Shasta Limited today for San Francisco, having received word that his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Mears of San Francisco, is seriously ill with pneumonia. Mears will remain at the bedside until the crisis is passed.

TWO AUTOISTS KILLED.

TEHACHAPI, April 12.—Peter Spanish was instantly killed, Samuel Jones received injuries from which he died and Mrs. Fuser was seriously injured when the automobile in which they were driving was struck at a grade crossing two miles south of here this afternoon by a southbound Southern Pacific passenger train.

"You want to look out for yourself today, Uncle Wiggly," said Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the musty lady housekeeper, at the nice old bunny gentleman sat down to breakfast in his little white bungalow in the woods one morning.

"Look out for myself? Why?" asked Mr. Longears. "Do you think the bad skilley-skillery alligators will try to get me today as they did yesterday, when I blew a willow whistle and scared them?"

"Do you?" asked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy with a laugh. "Listen!" she went on, just like a telephone girl, and then she whispered in Uncle Wiggly's ear that she had seen a large one.

"Oh, that!" laughed the bunny uncle. "Nurse Jane, I am a bunny gentleman. I can look out for myself that way. Now I'll have something to eat. This is the last year of my life. Let me see what the news is in the morning paper before I eat my piece of Orange Mountain shortcake to eat with."

Uncle Wiggly began eating the cake, and at the same time looked over the paper. His face grew red.

"Why is this queer?" he cried. "I read this a long while ago about Jimmie Wigglesworth, the boy duck, having a party. That was last year. I was there myself. Why—why?" he cried as he looked at the date on the paper. "This is the last year of my life. Let me see what the news is in the morning paper before I eat my piece of Orange Mountain shortcake to eat with."

TO LIGHT LINCOLN HIGHWAY IN CITY

Plans Are Submitted to Council
by Commissioner
Jackson.

A system of lighting for the portion of the Lincoln Highway, within the city limits, is to be prepared by C. E. Hardy, city electrician. Hardy was authorized to prepare and submit the plans for lighting the highway by the city council today, the resolution having been presented by Commissioner F. P. Jackson.

"The Lincoln Highway within the city limits is a main thoroughfare and there is a large amount of traffic over it, both by citizens of Oakland and visitors," said Commissioner Jackson, in presenting the resolution. "It should be properly lighted. This would be a benefit both from the standpoint of public safety and from the favorable impression that would be given by a well lighted highway to the numerous visitors and tourists entering the city over this route."

A large portion of the highway is not lighted at all, while other portions are only poorly lighted. I am asking that the superintendent of the electrical department make a study of the situation and present plans for an adequate system of lighting.

The council, on the motion of Commissioner Jackson, referred to M. S. Brazill $12 which he had paid to have his cows released from the city pound. It was Brazill's cattle that aroused the ire of Professor Charles Burkhalter, astronomer, when they wandered over the paths and trails around the Chabot Observatory at Mount Diablo. He warned Brazill to keep his cows away, as it was city land, but Brazill paid no heed to the warning. Professor Burkhalter telephoned to the city council and the cows were taken by deputies. It cost Brazill $12 to effect their release.

The council voted to refund the money, as Brazill promised "it would never happen again," and made a plan for mercy on the ground that he could not afford to pay the bill. He was severely rebuked for not heeding the astronomer's request to keep the cows away.

Evangelist Is Heard by Large Audience

Evangelist Thurston B. Price preached two stirring sermons yesterday at the First Methodist church, to large audiences. At 8:30 the afternoon he spoke to a church full of women and girls on "The Tremendous Power of a Woman's Influence." It was a great audience for a week-day meeting, and the speaker held the undivided interest of the crowd to the very close.

At night he spoke especially to men on "The Modern Business Man's Blunder." Another large audience greeted him and heard his burning words on the colossal blunder of a man who neglects his eyes on the road to success. Many committed themselves to a Christian life at each of the services. This afternoon he spoke at 2:30 on "The Folly of Looking Back," and at 7:45 in the evening on "You Can Run—Away from God."

Tomorrow night the theme will be "What Must a Man Do to Be Saved?" The meetings are proving very successful, both in attendance and in results. They will close with the services of next Sunday.

Hoffschneider Is Granted Divorce

Arthur L. Hoffschneider, proprietor of a San Francisco electrolyzing concern, was today granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from Emma Hoffschneider upon his cross-complaint charging desertion. The property interests of the couple, valued at more than $100,000, were settled out of court. They resided at 2225 Jack Boulevard.

Some time ago Judge Donahue denied Mrs. Hoffschneider a divorce upon her allegations of cruelty. The case involved a sensational testimony from both sides. The couple were married in San Francisco in 1905 and have two children, custody of whom was divided between the parents.

Old Man Is Still Missing From Home

Nothing has been learned of the whereabouts of A. N. Hollander, 65 years old, who was visiting with his daughter, Mrs. B. B. Lytton, 1429 Union street, and who disappeared mysteriously yesterday. Hollander left the house, saying he planned to take a short walk. He failed to return and Mrs. Lytton fears he has met with some accident. Hollander lived in Martinez, but has been visiting his daughter for the past two weeks.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years, and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping in the "kneecaps" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

STUDEBAKER WINS YOSEMITE HONORS

Weaver Drives the First Car
Over Snow-Bound Road
Into Valley.

(By EDMUND CRINNION.)

With the arrival of advice from the Yosemite Valley, the battle of the snow for the year 1916 has been ended by the victory of the Studebaker car driven by Hart Weaver of the Chester N. Weaver Company, who entered the valley, reaching the Sentinel Hotel at 10:30 Monday night, driving through a blinding snow storm and incidentally winning the Yosemite trophy, being the first automobile to negotiate the high Sierra roads into the Yosemite Valley regions for the season.

This victory of the Studebaker marks one of the hardest fought contests in the history of the state for cars of the description and drivers of experience have for weeks been on the job fighting their way to the floor of the Yosemite Valley after the honors and trophy for being the first car to successfully negotiate the snowbound roads.

This is the second season in succession that the Studebaker car has lifted the honors of the Yosemite in being the first automobile of the season to make the trip.

Just how the motorists in the Studebaker "six" got into the valley is more or less of a mystery and may remain so, according to Chester N. Weaver, local distributor of the Studebaker cars and father of Hart Weaver. All the elder Weaver will admit is that the Studebaker party hit out from Merced in a round-about way, following river beds, logging roads, old trails and over railroad bridges, and that the car made every foot of the journey from San Francisco to the Sentinel Hotel under its own power.

During Monday night Chester Weaver had a half-dozen telephone messages from various sources advising him of the progress of the Studebaker and then the final and happy news reached him. Weaver was advised over the long-distance phone that the motorists had encountered a heavy snowstorm and a blinding rainstorm during Monday, but neither of these materially deterred the progress of the car, but made the journey a very trying one to the passengers.

Successfully eluding every windmill that has been "laying low" for many weeks, waiting for an opportunity "to make a dash into the valley," Weaver drove his car from Oakland to the Sentinel Hotel in 40½ hours, and in checking in at the hotel on April 10 the feat marked a proper anniversary celebration of a similar feat just one year ago, when on the same date a Studebaker car was the first into the world-famed national park.

Weaver was accompanied on his daring excursion by Arthur C. Pillsbury, vice president and Joseph R. Hickey, former secretary of the San Francisco Playground Commission.

BUICK ENTERS YOSEMITE.

Word was received last yesterday afternoon by Bob Thompson, manager of the Buick Automobile company, that Claude McGee and Fred Gross, driving one of the 1915 Buick six models, reached the floor of the valley shortly after the noon hour. The Buick drivers entered the reserve by way of the Coulterville road and had quite a thrilling time in overcoming the snow.

COMMITTEE WORKS ON DRUM SCHEME

Carlston Group Deliberates on Future Plan of Action.

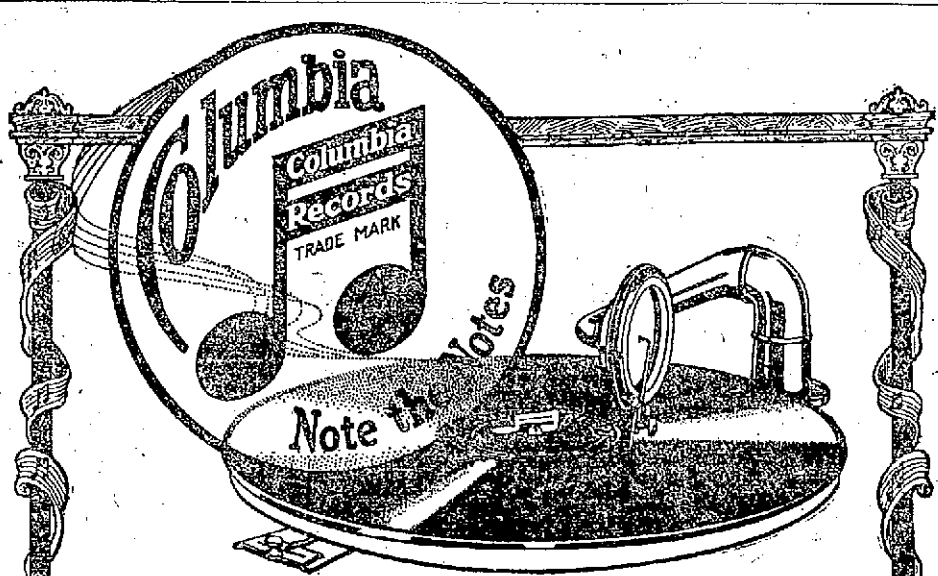

No conclusion has been reached by the Carlston committee with relation to the modified Drum plan of re-financing of the Peoples Water Company. One meeting has been held here at which the modification of the State Railroad commission to the scheme was reviewed; but no action was taken in a formal way.

The committee has heretofore submitted to the Drum plan before it was altered. Should the members conclude that the suggested change made by the railroad is of little importance, it is probable that the members may vote this week to remain with the Drum agreement.

There is a disposition, however, to have the Commission's order submitted to the Peoples Water Company bondholders for ratification. This may be avoided if a compromise is reached with regard to the control of the new East Bay Water Company, which is to be organized to take over the Peoples. So far, the only active step against the Drum plan has been that of a group of bondholders who, through Attorney James F. Peck, have intervened in the foreclosure suit of the trustees, the Metropolitan Trust Company.

Following the last conference, Robert M. Fitzgerald, attorney for the Carlston committee, said:

"There are no developments in the matter as far as the Carlston committee is concerned, and nothing definite has been done to warrant a detailed statement. The next important move on our part will be a recommendation as to what sort of compromise the Carlston committee is willing to accept in order to bring about a final settlement. It is difficult to say just when this recommendation will be made, but I expect some action in the very near future."

"Note the Notes!"

THIS is the trade-mark to keep in mind when buying any records. It stands for music—the right kind of music—better produced, better recorded, better in every way.

It stands for crystal clarity of TONE—
It stands for flawless, precise reproduction—
It stands for vivid mirroring of life—records of genius, art, personality, not merely records of sound, performance.

It means perfection —perfection that lasts. Columbia Records are unexcelled in durability, just as they are unexcelled in quality of TONE.

"Note the Notes." That is all you have to remember in buying any class of records. Vocal, instrumental—solo, ensemble—concert, operatic, orchestral records—whatever you buy, you get the best if you buy Columbia Records. That's what the "double-note" trade-mark stands for. That's why you ought to make sure it's there.

Rail Board's Passes Are Again Questioned

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—J. E. Sexton of Nevada, a stockholder in the Atchafalaya, Tepic & Santa Fe railroad, will renew his fight on the system of issuing passes to members and employees of the railroad commission, it was announced today. Sexton brought suit nominally against the commission, attacking the issuance of passes to the commissioners and officials. Superior Judge Scowell held that the officials were entitled to passes when traveling in performance of their duties. Sexton declares that he will take the case to a higher court, filing notice of appeal from the Superior Court judgment and holding that there is no legal reason why free passes should be furnished any employee of the state.

BLACKHEADS AND RED PIMPLES

All Over Face, Itched Very Badly Until Could Not Sleep, In About Two Months

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My trouble began by blackheads and little red pimples which came under the skin and then they came on the top and were in spots all over my face. They itched very badly until I could not sleep, and when I scratched them they would bleed. I heard of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I tried them. I would cleanse my face with hot water and Cuticura Soap and apply the Ointment, then wash it off with Cuticura Soap and hot water. In about two months my face was healed." What to Do for Itching Skins

Eczema, ringworm and other itching, burning skin eruptions are so easily made worse by improper treatment that one has to be very careful. There is one method, however, that you need not hesitate to use, even on a baby's tender skin—that is the resinol treatment. Resinol is the prescription of a Baltimore doctor, put up in the form of resinol ointment and resinol soap. This proved so remarkably successful that thousands of other physicians have prescribed it constantly for over 20 years. Resinol usually stops itching instantly, healing the eruption quickly, unless due to some serious internal disorder. Resinol ointment and resinol soap can be bought at any drug store, and are not at all expensive. Write for free sample, Dept. 1-R, Resinol, Baltimore. —Advertisement.

WORLD'S GREATEST WATERFALLS TO BE SHOWN IN PROGRAM OF BURTON HOLMES TRAVELOGUES

Tribune's Special Matinees at Macdonough Will Include Remarkable Trip Along Parana River.

The school children of Oakland and the bay cities are counting the hours until next Monday afternoon at 4 arrives, for then the first of THE TRIBUNE'S Burton Holmes Travelogues will be given at the Macdonough theater, at the reduced price which THE TRIBUNE has arranged for. It is impossible to write here about all the wonderful things which the children will see in the Burton Holmes Travelogues next week, but among the many wonders of the world they will enjoy a trip of 1000 miles along the Parana river in Argentina, South America, under the guidance of Burton Holmes and his assistants. They will visit the mighty Iguazu Falls, which are the largest and mightiest in the world, greater than our own Niagara Falls or the big Victoria Falls in South Africa. They will see the Parana river, above the falls, one and a half miles wide, just before it takes its terrific leap. And when you stand on the brink of the Iguazu Falls with Burton Holmes, you will be able to see a vista of three nations: Argentina, Brazil and Paraguay. The height of Niagara is 164 feet, while the height of the Iguazu Falls is 210 feet. The Iguazu Falls are 13,250 feet wide, more than twice as wide as Niagara and the Victoria Falls of South Africa combined. Over Niagara tumbles each minute 18,000,000 cubic feet of water, while over the Iguazu Falls there tumbles more than 30,000,000 cubic feet of roaring, rushing water each minute of the day and night, and it never gets tired. And while you are on the Parana river of Argentina, you are going to see some remarkable animals, just as Burton Holmes and his camera men photographed them in motion-photography. There will be the long-nosed opossum and the powerful armadillo, who is covered with an armor of strong leather plates, and the giant ant-eater, whose sticky tongue is a foot long and with which he feeds by darting it into a burrow of ants. And you will see the tegu, a monster lizard, who can kill a hen, and the whistling scorpion and the box constrictors used by snake charmers in circuses all over the world. You are going to see these remarkable animals just as they live in their native haunts. The special matinee at 4 p. m. daily at the Macdonough theater starting next Monday of the Burton Holmes Travelogues are ONLY 10c for the school children of Oakland and the bay cities. THE TRIBUNE has arranged for these matinees so that the children can see the pictures and hear the Burton Holmes "travel talks" at the nominal expense of TEN CENTS. Children don't forget to take a coupon with you to the theater and present with ten cents, otherwise you will have to pay the regular prices. WEBB GETS REPLY ON DEPUTY'S FEE

Printing Firm Points to Inaction in Harrison Case.

I. A. Ireland, sales manager of the Myself-Rollins Bank Note Company, is preparing a letter to Governor Johnson, asking that he demand the resignation of K. W. Harrison, a deputy in the office of Attorney-General T. S. Webb, whom he accuses of accepting the pay of a private printing firm to pass upon election blanks and ballots.

This letter to the Governor follows a letter which Ireland has sent to Attorney-General Webb, in answer to one from that official in which he protected Harrison, saying that he had advised him to accept pay for the services performed, as they were not a part of his work as a Deputy Attorney-General, although he did come by his information in his capacity as such. Ireland claims that the Attorney-General's office had refused him the same information a short time before.

NOT OFFICIAL.

As this office has nothing official to do with such cases, explained the Attorney-General, "I advised Harrison that I saw no good reason why he might not accept such employment in his private capacity as an attorney-at-law. I told the Myself-Rollins Company that this office did not give such advice, and that they would consult their own private counsel. Harrison consulted with me before he took the employment in question."

Ireland declares that the Attorney-General's explanation does not satisfy him.

"I contend that the outstanding fee still remains," said Ireland, "that I could not get from the Attorney-General's office the information which I sought, while the other firm did get that information. It seems to me that the public should not thus be served. The matter has not been settled. I am sending a letter to Governor Johnson, asking him to demand the resignation of Harrison as a member of the Attorney-General's official staff."

IRELAND'S REPLY.

"My Dear Attorney-General:

"Let me thank you for your reply to my letter to the Governor, which he referred to you, and also to my letter to you relative to the same matter. I note your remarks as to furnishing information, and perhaps your view is a correct one.

"Your reply, covering the second subject of my previous letter, clearly indicates that the still small voice of conscience suggested to your deputy, Mr. Harrison, some doubts as to whether he should accept private pay for the information and assistance which he would be especially qualified to render as the Deputy Attorney-General, having charge of election matters.

"It is doubtful whether Mr. Harrison would have discussed the matter with you had he not felt that there was some question as to how the public would view his accepting over $3000 a year as a public official, and then selling the information which he secured as a result of his public office to a private concern for as much pay as he could possibly get out of it.

"Mr. Harrison explained to me over the telephone that if public servants were paid a good enough salary it would not be necessary for them to accept private employment, while also serving the public.

"It seems to the writer that there is a well-defined demand on the part of the public in all democracies that its public servants shall be above suspicion, and that they shall not attempt to serve two masters when such service would be giving to favored citizens privileges not open to all.

"The demand on the part of the public of California that the present administration deemed it desirable to publicly repudiate or preserve is not possible to deal quite so enthusiastically about our present administration when such glaring inconsistencies are brought to light."

In calling this attention of Governor Johnson and yourself to this matter we

75,000 L.A. Peons May Be Deported

Southern City Appeals for Federal Aid

LOS ANGELES, April 12.—The Board of County Supervisors here will today forward to Washington a request that 75,000 Mexicans be deported, according to a statement of the measure.

The document to the immigration authorities states that more than fifty thousand destitute peons have come to Los Angeles and the immediate vicinity since the Mexican trouble started five years ago. A large number of them are made public charges. The statement also requested that border immigration officers south of here use greater discretion in admitting Mexicans from across the line.

SENATOR SHERMAN ILLINOIS VICTOR

CHICAGO, April 12.—Returns today from yesterday's preference primary in Illinois show that Senator L. Y. Sherman will have 66 of the 53 delegates in the national Republican convention. Two of the district delegates have declared themselves in favor of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt. John M. Harlan, who ran for delegate-at-large unopposed, but who in his campaign talks favored Roosevelt, was defeated by approximately 50,000, according to almost complete returns.

President Wilson's was the only name on the Democratic ballot, but 75 voters here wrote in the name of Champ Clark.

The local Republican vote in Chicago was 75,593 and the Democratic vote 73,413. Senator Sherman's name was the only one on the Republican ticket, but the name of Roosevelt was written in by 11,520 voters. In like manner Hughes received 950, Root 133 and Mayor William M. Thompson 250.

In the Democratic fight Roger C. Sullivan easily won control of the Cook county committee, the state central committee and the votes that will control the Democratic state convention.

A total of 7765 women expressed their preference for President and of this number Roosevelt was the choice of about one-fourth.

Jury Finds Piplica Not Guilty of Arson

Mark Piplica, who contracted to pay a debt to John Marconich by selling fire to the Marconich home at 1330 Gess street, was acquitted by a jury last night on a charge of arson. It was his second trial. Marconich, who has pleaded guilty, asked for probation. At the time Piplica was arrested he confessed that Marconich had induced him to fire the house and Marconich, who had been called as a witness in the Superior Court, was placed under arrest and charged with arson.

had thought that you would at least view the light of some of the Governor's professions as to the duties of public officials, but we have been somewhat disappointed. It was a privilege for us to have received permission to do what would not be permitted in the case of deputies belonging to the Republican party. As a President it is not possible to deal quite so enthusiastically about our present administration when such glaring inconsistencies are brought to light."

WHO HAS LUCKY NUMBER?

Tribune Prizes Are to Be Distributed

Who holds the ten lucky tickets each entitling the possessor to one of the gold diamond pendants and chains which THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE is giving away?

Drawings were held yesterday, with J. Raymond Newsom, advertising manager of Kahn's, and C. M. Tieburg of the Royal Shoe Company as judges. Henry Whittall, a boy, 829 Lydne street, drew the numbers from the box of TRIBUNE coupons. First he drew ten numbers, one for each pendant, to denote the winners. Then he drew four more sets of ten numbers, one corresponding to each pendant offered, so that there will be a first, second, third, fourth and fifth choice when it comes to claiming the prizes. Of course No. 1 has the first chance in each case. In case, however, No. 1 does not appear with his coupon to claim the pendant under which his number is listed, then No. 2 in the same list will have a chance, and so on through the five.

The ten first numbers will be posted for ten days. If the person holding the number has not claimed his prize in that time, the second number for that pendant will be posted for five days. If still the pendant is not claimed, the next number will stand for five days. And so on until the prizes are all distributed.

The numbers follow:

NEW REPUBLIC IN CHINA IS PLANNED

Big Provinces Secede From Yuan Shi Kai Government.

SHANGHAI, April 12.—Formation of a new republic in Southern China with a population of 100,000,000, may be announced within a few weeks, following the lead of Kwang Tung province, the important maritime province of Che Kiang has seceded from the authority of President Yuan Shi Kai.

Emissaries of the revolutionists have arrived in Canton and are in consultation there. It is thought likely that Canton will be made capital of the new republic. Upon reaching there the revolutionary agents reported that Juan Puik Leu and Kwei Chow provinces were about to issue declarations of independence. The movement appears spreading to all provinces south of the Yang Tse Kiang river.

In an effort to prevent dissolution of his nation, President Yuan has summoned revolutionary leaders to confer with him at Peking. Some rebels have not yet accepted this invitation.

Revolutionists in China Are Defeated

SHANGHAI, April 12.—Three hundred armed revolutionaries of Hongkong yesterday attacked 200 government soldiers at the Anglo-Chinese boundary. As 400 men came up to reinforce the later the revolutionaries scattered. The casualties on both sides amounted to fifty killed and a large number wounded.

The China Mail reports fighting between the regular forces of Lung Chi Kwang, governor of Kwang Tung province, in the Shakee district, as a result of which it is estimated that a hundred were killed and many hundreds wounded.

PEKING, April 12.—An armistice has been arranged for the purpose of formulating a peace-between the Yuan Shi Kai government and the revolutionary armies. It was announced today. It is believed the fact that Yuan gave up his attempt to make China an empire and returned to the presidency may cause the rebels to come to terms.

TAXI ROLLS DOWN HILL; THREE HURT

Auto Turns Turtle on Stockton Street Grade, Pinning Occupants Beneath.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—Three men were injured this morning when a taxicab, turning to avoid collision with a street car, turned turtle, rolling down the Stockton street hill, and pinning the chauffeur and passengers under the wreckage.

The injured: J. C. Brooks, Chicago capitalist; cut by broken glass, bruises, contusions and shock.

Robert Higgins, Seattle automobile man; cut and bruised.

Charles Duffy, chauffeur; bruises and cuts.

The accident happened at Pacific and Stockton streets. As the machine approached the corner a municipal street car, filled with men and women on their way to work, blocked its path. Duffy applied the brakes, which failed to work. Seeing the peril to the workers if the automobile struck the car he turned his machine, which capsized.

The injured men were hurried to the Central Emergency Hospital.

KIDSTO GET FREE TICKETS! Barnes' Big Circus Is a Wonderland

The TRIBUNE'S Wild Animal Prize Contest. To the Wild Animal Editor: I hereby certify I am not over 15 years of age, and I submit names of wild animals in your prize contest for free tickets to the Al. G. Barnes Big Four Ring Wild Animal Circus.

Name _____ Address _____ (One of these Coupons must be attached to your list.)

When a-e-e, Kids!

How would you like to win free tickets to A. G. Barnes' Big Four Ring Wild Animal Circus, the most marvelous circus in the world, where lions and bears and tigers and leopards, and the funniest little monkeys and dogs ride horses?

Of course, you want to win some of that money, or some of these tickets and The TRIBUNE is going to help you do it. Now read this carefully, every word of it, and then get your pencil, ask Papa or Mama or Teacher to help you, and get busy.

Barnes' circus with its wild animals doing all the things that humans used to do in circuses, is coming to Oakland on April 17 and 18. It will come into town on two railroad trains of cars double length. It will unload hundreds of the most beautiful animal cages, band wagons, callopes and banners, and at 10:30 o'clock a. m. it will give the most glittering parade, a mile long, that was ever seen. At 2 o'clock the circus opens with the grand procession in which 1000 animals, 150 trainers, 500 attendants, 6 bands, the 40-clown animals, including the cutest little baby elephant and his proud mamma, "Holly Moses," the rare black camel, the 10 funny pigs, the 500 beautiful penning ponies and marching horses will participate.

Human clowns are funny, but just think of pigs being clowns, and dogs and elephants and mules and even bears!

Then in the evening the circus doors will open at 7 o'clock and the circus will begin at 8. And, mark you, you see just as much circus in the evening as you do in the afternoon. No tearing down of seats or tents or moving of wagons while the show is going on. Mr. Barnes' men are there to entertain you, his wonderful animals are there to thrill and instruct you, and not a seat falls, not a wagon moves, nothing is done but look after your pleasure and your comfort until the last complete event of the entire program is over.

And everything is clean, wholesome, moral, elevating and refined.

Not a word, not an act, not an incident that is not of the most fastidious refinement. Now just think, for two whole days the fairy land of animals is going to be here. Mr. Barnes has brought Arabian Nights, Anderson's Fairy Tales and Aesop's fables to life. His animals do everything, even in talking, in their own way. And he is bringing them all here for you to see.

Now for the conditions of the contest:

The letters contained in the sentence, "AL G. Barnes Wild Animal Circus Prize Contest," are to be used in spelling the names of wild animals.

There are 19 different letters of the alphabet in the sentence and each may be used as often as desired.

Any boy or girl in Oakland and bay cities and vicinity 15 years of age or under may compete in this contest and winners must appear at The TRIBUNE office at a date to be announced by The TRIBUNE Contest Editor.

That grand wizard of animal training, Mr. A. G. Barnes himself, will be at The TRIBUNE office to distribute prizes and you will have a chance to shake hands with this wonderful man who tames lions and tigers and who makes the wild animal his friend and pupil.

ANNEX BUILT FOR POWER SHOW

Building Beside Municipal Auditorium to House Wonderful Exhibits.

Construction work has been begun on the Annex building which will be erected south of the Oakland auditorium to house the exhibits of the Pacific Coast Motor Power Show, for which room cannot be found in the large auditorium arena.

With a large number of workmen employed, the structure will be completed within a week. It will be seventy feet wide and 420 feet long, as long as many of the exhibit buildings at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

The auditorium will be used for the automobile displays, including, good roads-making machinery, tractors and stationary engines, as well as the displays of the electrical dealers and manufacturers. Some of the individual exhibits weigh seventeen tons and special attention is being paid in the laying of a reinforced floor with a solid ground base.

From all indications there will be more than 100 exhibitors, including many Eastern manufacturers who are exhibiting in the West for the first time. The coming exposition will not only put Oakland on the map as an automobile center, but will demonstrate again the value of the auditorium as an exposition building.

Henry D. Joy, president of the National Lincoln Highway Association, is to be represented at the show by Austin F. Bement, secretary of the association. One of the objects of the exposition will be the honoring of the Lincoln highway and for Oakland as the western land terminal of the great roadway.

ILLUMINATED PARADE.

Plans for the illuminated automobile parade which will be held on the night of April 25 when the show opens, are being rapidly completed. A meeting of the committees has been called for Friday noon at the Hotel Oakland. With the Automobile Industries Association of Alameda County and the Lincoln highway committee of the Chamber of Commerce in active charge, the Rotary Club, Merchants' Exchange, manufacturers' committee of the Chamber of Commerce, progress and prosperity committee co-operating in the details, this parade will be the greatest ever held in Oakland.

Chautauque F. Jackson and W. H. Edwards are working with the committeemen and will ask the co-operation of the city to make the parade a big civic event. A special proclamation is to be issued by Mayor John L. Dwyer.

It is estimated that 1000 automobiles will be in the line of march. Large delegations will be sent from San Francisco, Berkeley, Alameda, Stockton, San Jose, Sacramento and other cities. Stockton will also send a special train of automobiles.

Enthusiasts for Stockton day, one of the special days set aside during the ten days of the show, San Jose will also have a special day.

Sierra Club Will Have Diablo Day

Saturday is Diablo day for the members of the Sierra Club, California's famous organization of mountain climbers and explorers. On that day the hikers will ascend Mount Diablo, meridian mountain, that stands sentinel over half the state of California.

The club has been divided into two parties under the leadership of L. T. Haskell and William T. Goldsborough.

The first party will start from the Ferry building at 8 o'clock in the morning and the second will leave on the 10:40 ferry boat in the afternoon. The Oakland Antioch & Eastern Railway will carry the hikers to Walnut station at the head of Tgnano valley on the west slope of the mountain.

The ascent will be made up Pine canyon, picturesque ravine, abounding in fantastic and mystical rock formations. Camp will be made on the mountain and sunrise will be observed from the summit Sunday morning. The descent will be made via Mitchell's canyon, rugged and wild ravine that tumbles down the north shoulders of the historic mountain.

With Pride and particular pleasure the Orpheum management calls the attention of its clientele and of all theater goers to the wonderful bill of stars that constitute the Orpheum program this week.

Five of the seven acts on the program are features that ALWAYS are headline acts on all programs except THIS program. This then, is bargain week at the Orpheum.

CONSIDER THESE STARS

CICCOLINI

His golden voice has made him the idol of fastidious critics and of all music lovers in Europe. He has been the leading tenor in the greatest grand opera companies of Paris, Milan, Petrograd, Berlin and every capital abroad.

Ciccolini Is Here

FANNIE BRICE

The Queen of dainty fun makers—the most brilliant of all the stars in Ziegfeld's Follies—with a wonderful gift for combining humor and song, wit and melody into a bouquet of brightness.

Fannie Brice Is Here

Ethel Clifton and Brenda Fowler

Two brilliant girls who write plays and act them—plays like Claude Gillingwater's "The Decision of Governor Locke," and Lillian Kingsbury's "The Coward." This week they play "The Saint and the Sinner." They wrote it. See them play it—women in particular—will hang breathless upon its tense, crucial situation.

Desiree Lubowska

No dancer has contrived such weirdly beautiful movements, so quaintly designed and so perfectly done, with the aid of her dancing girls, as Desiree Lubowska.

Willa Holt Wakefield

Southern society never gave a more charming and gifted woman to the stage than Willa Holt Wakefield. Her songs, witty and tender, are always a joy—for Miss Wakefield is a consummate artist at the piano—in their delivery.

Clark and Verdi

Their quaint Italian fun has charmed the nation. They are a joy forever—favorites beyond question.

D'Avigneau Gypsy Trio

Three pretty girls, smart musicians in a picturesque setting—a treat to the eye and to the ear.

Blue Blood and Red

A five-part screen play that is full of thrills and laughs—a Western story of a new kind; the sort of feature picture that "fans" pay 25 cents to see alone, in the exclusive picture houses. The Orpheum pictures—like the Orpheum vaudeville—are expensive and superior—the most exclusive pictures featured in the market.

There are five more days in which this superb ORPHEUM PROGRAM may be seen this week. 'Twould be a pity to miss it. Phone now, Oak. 711.

FRIENDS THOUGHT COULD NOT LIVE

Alice Wilson Was Unconscious Hours at a Time and Mind a Blank.

A startling statement was made recently by Mrs. Alice Wilson, wife of Charles E. Wilson, who resides at No. 137 Fortieth street, Pittsburgh, Pa., regarding Plant Juice, the great system tonic. She said:

"If any one knows what stomach trouble is, it is surely myself. For the past eight years I have suffered from severe pains; at times I would become so bad that I was unconscious for hours at a time and my mind would fall me for days—a perfect blank. My circulation would almost stop, and my hands and feet would become cold and clammy. Food would not lie on my stomach and I was compelled to subsist on liquids and a very light diet. I lost flesh and my weight was reduced from 135 to 115 pounds. My neighbors did not expect me to live and gave me up to die. My husband, who was employed at the Clark-Mills, brought me home a bottle of Plant Juice. Before I had used one-half of it, I began to feel better and my strength to return. I have used Plant Juice now for the past five weeks and want to state publicly that I have entirely regained my health. I can eat any kind of food and digest it perfectly and have not an ache or pain in my entire body. I am doing all of my housework for the first time in the past eight years and am so happy that I sing from joy, for I am a well woman once more—entirely cured—and I give all praise for same to Plant Juice. I am recommending your medicine to all of my friends."

Such words as these are being received every day from enthusiastic users of Plant Juice who have been cured from ailments of long standing and are only too glad to lend their names in testimony thereof.

Plant Juice is sold in all Owl Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

SUPPORT MAJORITY CHOICE.

Mr. William Barnes, Jr., of New York, prominent in the councils of the Republican party in that State for many years, is reported in the news despatches as declaring that he will not support the presidential nominee of the Republican party if that nominee should be Colonel Theodore Roosevelt. We hope that Mr. Barnes has been misquoted.

As a Republican he should not consider any alternative to supporting the nominee of the national Republican organization in the coming presidential election. He should be able to bury all his differences if that be necessary to submit to the judgment of the majority of the party. We are ready to admit that the breach between Barnes and Roosevelt is wide and caused by bitter political and personal animosity. We shall not deny the assertion that Colonel Roosevelt was not particular about bolting the party in 1912 and refusing his support to the choice of the majority.

But because bolting was hateful and destructive when committed by Roosevelt it will be hateful and destructive in Barnes. And the offense of the one does not justify the offense of the other. While the necessity for united action in the Republican ranks is not more urgent now than it was in 1912, it is more apparent to the rank and file of the party.

Mr. Barnes is free to make such honest opposition as he desires to any candidate for the nomination, but it is not the time nor the spirit of the time to talk of not supporting a certain individual who may become the nominee of the party. It is no time to talk of bolting, or prosecuting factional fights. Such action in the Republican party is as much to be deprecated as is attempts of a surviving Progressive administration to stir up division in that party. Colonel Roosevelt, it may be said at this late date, is opposed to both kinds of small politics.

PLOTTING AGAINST THE INDIAN.

More scuttling schemes have appeared upon the administration horizon at Washington. This time the "poor Indian" is scheduled to be the victim. Three bills have been introduced in Congress which, if they become laws, will tend to release the Indians from Federal control and to permit them to assume unrestricted personal ownership of their lands and other property. One bill introduced by Representative Hastings would confer on the superintendent of the Five Civilized Tribes the authority now vested in the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and the Secretary of the Interior respecting lands and individual moneys of the enrolled members of the tribes in Oklahoma. A bill introduced by Senator Johnson of South Dakota proposes to confer upon tribes the right to select their superintendent and other employees, thus taking away from the Interior Department the appointive power. A third bill, offered by Senator Lane, proposes to abolish the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and his assistants and create in lieu thereof an independent bureau of three commissioners subject only to the control of Congress.

These bills all seek to do away with Uncle Sam's watchful guardianship of the Indian. By removing Federal control and responsibility for the security of the Indian's lands and other property they would make him the prey of designing whites, the hungry horde of scheming speculators who have always stood at the threshold of the Indian's home, looking for an opportunity to cheat him out of his land, rich with timber, oil and minerals. The present regulations are loose enough in this respect.

The proposed legislation would also take away from the Indian the benefits of the classified civil service and throw him and his possessions upon the mercy of political spoilers.

Repeated attempts have been made to break down Federal supervision of the Indian tribes. They have failed heretofore; will they succeed in the present Congress? Progress with the Red Man has seemed slow, because we have expected so much of him, but the method of individualization, under control and with the aid of the national government, is indisputably the best for the Indian. Government control should be strengthened instead of vitiated. The Indian is not afraid of the government; it is the private schemer, aided by small-visioned politicians, who is a menace to his welfare.

WOMAN'S WAR GAINS.

If any good can come out of such a destructive war as the present conflict in Europe the new estimate of the position of women in human society may be counted the greatest. Her position after peace is established will be so vastly more important that it may be considered an entirely new one. The revelation, through war, of her capacities has destroyed the age-old prejudices against her and shattered all arguments about her peculiar unfitness.

In England, where opposition to equal suffrage and other phases of feminism has been most determined and most agitated, women have become as indispensable as the soldier, and as the male in any other occupation.

Women are making war supplies—ammunition and clothing; they are running elevators and ticket offices; they are farming and filling all kinds of clerkships; they are running automobiles and delivery wagons; working in banks, wholesale houses, insurance offices and counting rooms generally. No employment has been found too strenuous, too heavy, too delicate or too mean for the women of England. The women of France are being relied upon to fill the same roles in industry and commerce, and in addition have become policemen, railway and street car conductors.

If the men and the governments of Europe think they will escape hearing about the war work of women after the war is over they are in for a dreary disillusionment. The English suffragettes have dropped their militant tactics and have started to advertise the economic service they are rendering the nation. When peace comes we may expect them to say to the government, "We have earned the right to vote; we now want the privilege."

The shameless conservatism of the Englishman probably will have an answer or two ready, but they won't hold water. He probably will try to be arbitrary and say he simply does not intend to divide his divine privilege of the ballot with women, but he will not get away with that, either.

The old arguments against equal suffrage in Europe have been demolished by the work of women in an emergency. There are millions more women than men in the Old World now and we shall not be surprised to see women ruling that old world before long. Since man has not been such a howling success we should not despair until they have been given a trial.

The Senate Democrats adopted halfway methods regarding the sugar schedule and voted to retain the import duty of one cent a pound only until 1920. In this way they may think to preserve something to stand upon to answer the charges already made against them of repudiating the free-sugar policy of the 1912 platform and of the Underwood law. The action of the Senate Democrats is a fine display of lack of courage to acknowledge their mistake. The administration needs the sugar tax to help make up the treasury deficit and is willing to take it, but it will not consider any but a hand-to-mouth policy. Obviously it does not care whether or not the putting of a four-year limit on dutiable sugar will serve to discourage any new investments in sugar lands or sugar manufacturing. The sugar tax repeal act as amended by the Senate does not contain a single constructive idea.

One of the oddest news reports sent from any locality in the past year of extraordinary happenings was that received yesterday from Queretaro, Mexico, the provisional capital of First Chief Carranza. It is to the effect reports of ill treatment of Mexicans in Guatemala have aroused public feeling in Mexico and the newspapers call upon Carranza to protect Mexican citizens abroad. Perhaps the Mexican public mind might have produced a more cynical, sarcastic thought than this, but we doubt it. For five years foreigners in Mexico have been denied any measure of protection whatsoever. Still, the Mexicans are displaying more spirit than the officials of the American government, who have shamelessly declined to have any interest in American citizens abroad in Mexico.

The Federal immigration commissioner at New York thinks that the Burnett immigration bill, with its literacy test, if passed by Congress, will be a great boon to the cause of education in Italy, because it will force the people of that country to learn to read if they want to come to the United States. From which we may take the cue to make the point, when arguing with foreign countries over the new law, that it was enacted for their own good.

Matthew Hale, Progressive national committeeman from Massachusetts, has confessed to being the author of the plot of a cartoon of Senator Crane carrying a dark lantern. Thus the mystery of a caricature of an able son of Massachusetts which aroused the anger of the people has been cleared up. The "insult" was no bigger than the private opinion of Matthew Hale.

A New York woman is suing her husband for divorce on the ground that he violated his marriage vows through unlawful intimacy with a paramour. He also murdered his wife's father and mother. The wife might have introduced fairly strong incidental claims for divorce,

Joy riding is no fun when you run out of gasoline a good ways from home and have no money to buy more, as per the experience of a young man of this city.

The governor of the Philippines is praised by Mr. Schuster, late of Persia, which is to be noted, there being so much the other way around from people right at hand.

General Gavira says the Mexicans need no help in running down Villa, which may be a hint of a formal protest that is being got ready against United States soldiers on Mexican soil.

The assertion is made that the best way to solve the rabbit pest is to adopt them as food. But it would be more difficult for Americans to get the habit of rabbit stew than to subsidize science into some other way of abating the creatures.

The king of the Belgians, whose modesty and self-effacement are splendid, thanks Americans for the relief they are constantly sending and for their sympathy. There would appear to be little else for him to thank anybody for.

The account of the fish who ate the paint off the hull of the King Cyrus is a real fish story. Anyone who doubts it lacks that beautiful faith that enables one to believe without the convincing presence of exhibits, affidavits or proof of any kind.

The general experience is reversed in the matter of the price of automobiles. It was supposed they would become cheaper as soon as experimenting was over and manufacturing became standardized, but prices now are increasing, due to the advance in the cost of material.

An instance of how the absence of the expected attracted attention is afforded in a recent proceeding of the Board of Supervisors. The meat contract was let without protest or friction. At the courthouse they have to think hard to remember the last time such a thing occurred.

The Mail of Woodland notes that everybody is talking straw votes. It particularizes to the effect that these votes "are being taken among readers of newspapers, on railroad trains, in poolrooms, in department stores, in hotel lobbies. They generally show whatever the falter of the vote started out to prove."

In a letter to the New York Evening Post, Molly Elliott Sewell, noted writer, puts it in this wise: "The power to express one's self in short words is a great and splendid art. Rudyard Kipling, at his best, had it. Colonel Theodore Roosevelt when he is directly inspired by the devil, has it; his language on these occasions is always admirable."

San Jose asserts its modesty by refusing to accept the statue representing "Creation," presented by the Exposition officials. Its officials explain they had no place to hide it. The suggestion that it might have been kept aloft in the home-made airship isn't good. Some of the extra sensitive still might have glimpsed it with their spy-glasses.

Seventeen were going too fast and got arrested at Centerville last Sunday. It is a large number, though not conclusive that the arresting officer was over-alert. It is a fact, though, that danger is not eliminated from the auto by a man out in the country gathering in everybody who goes along the road and appears to be pressing the limit of speed.

The titlitar at the performance was in evidence before Madame Calve the other day, apparently thinking "Le Carillon," descriptive of a dying soldier, was a slapstick effort, and being fearful of not getting in the first laugh. The titlitar gets in by paying his money and has to be put up with, though why he doesn't go out to the slaughter house and take in all the fun that is going on there is not plain.

OLD STUFF.

The Democrats are scandalized at the very thought of the Republicans shattering their third-term and Supreme Court precedents whilst endeavoring themselves to fracture another well-known precedent to the effect that the Democratic party can't elect a president two terms running.—Exchange.

SIXTY years ago cavalry scouts acted as eyes for the army, reconnoitering and reporting the location of the enemy. Today they are about as efficient as blind men. Reconnoitering is now done by aeroplane.

"An army without aerial scouts and aerial auxiliary can be corrupted and slaughtered like a herd of sheep; a harbor or naval station without aerial defense is at the mercy of every navy submarine and cruiser."

At the beginning of the war England had four hundred aeroplanes, and she now finds it necessary to manufacture about a thousand a week to meet her needs. Germany at the beginning of the war had about one thousand aeroplanes, and is now manufacturing at least four hundred weekly. The United States Government has about thirty useless ones. We have fewer aeroplanes than has Chile, Greece, Spain or Brazil. The Assistant Cassidy's idea.

The foreman swore at Cassidy for not fully loading up his hod. The hod, he said, would hold so many bricks, and Cassidy must take a full load up the ladder every trip.

One morning the supply of bricks ran out and Cassidy, after gathering every brick in sight, found he was still short of the proper number. He yelled up to a workman on the fifth floor: "What do you want?" asked the workman.

"Throw me down wan brick," shouted Cassidy, "to make good me load."—Boston Transcript.

Reason Enough.

Everything in the dear old village seemed the same to Jones after his absence of four years. The old church, the village pump, the ducks on the green, the old men smoking while their wives gossip—it was so restful after the rush and bustle of the city. Suddenly he missed something.

"Where's Hodge's windmill?" he asked in surprise. "I can only see one mill, and there used to be two."

The native gazed thoughtfully around, as if to verify the statement. Then he said slowly:

"They pulled one down. There weren't enough wind for two of 'em."

PATH THAT LEADS NOWHERE.

There's a path that leads to Nowhere
In a meadow that I know,
Where an inland island rises
And the stream is still and slow;
There it wanders under willows,
And beneath the silver green
Of the birches' silent shadows
Where the early violets lean.

Other pathways lead to Somewhere,
But the one I love so well
Has no end and no beginning—
Just the beauty of the dell,
Just the wind-flowers and the lilies,
Yellow striped as adder's tongue,
Seem to satisfy my pathway
As it winds their scents among.

There I go to meet the Spring-time,
When the meadow is aglow,
Marigolds amid the marishes,
And the stream is still and slow.
There I find my fair oasis,
And with care-free feet I tread
For the pathway leads to nowhere,
And the blue is overhead!

All the ways that lead to Somewhere
Echo with the hurrying feet
Of the Struggling and the Striving,
But the way I find so sweet
Bids me dream and bids me linger,
Joy and Beauty are its goal—
On the path that leads to Nowhere
I have sometimes found my soul!

THIS NO TEN-ROUND ROUT.

The campaign which has been waged in behalf of Mr. Roosevelt in this state has had in it no element of concession and is likely to be changed. It may embarrass the general Roosevelt plan, but that is a matter not easy to remedy now. War to the bitter end within the Republican party was declared, and such it is likely to be. In a wide-open primary the voters are to declare their will when April 25 gets here.—Springfield Republican.

KING WAS PLEASED.

Kings is kings, and you've got to make allowances, said Huckleberry Finn; but some have had no cause to make these allowances; some have dwelt happily, without need for reservation of excuse, in the benign effulgence of royal favor. Of such is Miss Geraldine Farrar. It has ever, of course, been one of the perquisites of prima donnas to enjoy the friendship of sovereigns, nobles, and the lesser great of earth; but Miss Farrar was born and reared in parts remote from the domains of royalty; and therefore we are entitled to be more than usually dazzled, from her provincial standpoint, by consideration of her case. So we shall make no concealment of the bourgeois thrill which awakes in us when, at the close of the night chapter of Miss Farrar's Autobiography, we found her observing, in her irresistible American way: "What a perfect darling old King Oscar was!" When Miss Farrar sang at Stockholm, King Oscar never missed a performance; and when her far-away was celebrated, His Majesty not only decorated her with the gold cross of the Order of Merit, but gave her a complete set of Swedish stamps for her (and Caruso, who, we are edified to learn, is a postage-stamp "fan.")—North American Review.

MRS. "BOB" WINS FIGHT FOR GIRL TRAMP PUGILIST'S FORMER WIFE SAMARITAN

June Harris, Convict's
Pal, Granted
Freedom

June Gloran Harris, formerly of Niles, woman tramp, companion of an ex-convict and burglar through necessity, is to have another change. On probation, and with the assurance of Mrs. Bob Fitzsimmons, former wife of the pugilist, that a position will be found for her, the girl has left jail in San Jose, where she has spent three months on a burglary charge, and is facing a less tangled order of things than has been hers in years.

When June Harris was charged with helping Louis Long rob a store at San Jose a bit of her story came out. There were those who accused her of responsibility for Long's downfall, but Long, who was returned to San Quentin, said that she had kept him straight for the longest time he had ever been so.

HUNGRY AND PENILESS.
"We did not have a bite to eat all day, not a cent, nor any friends. We were above begging. What would you do in a case like that?" This was June Harris' explanation and excuse when she was arrested.

Continuing her story, Miss Harris said: "Louis finally said that we could raise a couple of dollars by stealing things he saw through a window of a store. I advised him against it. Finally, I suppose I acted as a sort of lookout for him."

Judge W. A. Beasley has dismissed the burglary charge against the girl and has had a petty larceny charge sworn to. On this count she will be released on probation, again to face a world that has hitherto shown her but its seamy side.

GOODNESS IN CHARACTER.
When Mrs. Bob Fitzsimmons heard of the girl luck changed for June Harris, for it is to just such cases as hers that the wife of the former heavyweight champion is devoting her life. Those who have known the girl in the jail since she came there are convinced of the innate goodness of her character, a goodness which sought expression when she said: "The probation officer of Alameda county, I understand, says that I am the cause of the downfall of Louis. It is not so. I met him when he was out of jail eleven months. We lived together thirteen months after that. He said, himself, that I was keeping him straight and that it was the longest he had ever been out of jail, after the first time he went there. Miss Harris thrust out her hand to display her wedding ring. "I thought that ours was a common law marriage," she explained.

Expert Doubts Man Is Mafia Murderer

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—As the Mafia has not come to the rescue of James Gaffney, held here as Pietro Torturici, murderer of Biaggio Villardo, the opinion was expressed today by Theodore Kytkin, criminologist, that the person who Torturici is declared to be the murderer of the western leaders of the Mafia and that the powerful Italian secret organization undoubtedly would have come to his assistance long ago if he had been arrested on the murder charge. Gaffney consistently reiterates that he is not Torturici. He claims he was a mere boy in Kansas City in April, 1905, when Torturici is alleged to have slain Villardo.

GREAT FESTIVAL FOR FOURTH, PLAN

Merchants' Exchange Will Unite With Other Cities in Celebration.

Detailed plans for the big Fourth of July celebration in Oakland are to be formulated in the next two weeks by sub-committees to be placed in charge of every item on the proposed program by President Harry G. Williams of the Merchants' Exchange.
A consultation with Chief of Police William F. Woods will be held to see what may be done to handle the crowds properly. Whether fire crackers will be allowed, and to discuss other matters in connection with the participation in the celebration of the police department. Meetings will also be held as soon as possible to plan the other features, including the parade, exercises, ball and regatta on the lake.
With the other east bay cities joining with Oakland, a mammoth celebration is projected and arrangements are being made to have special train service to all outlying towns. Oakland will be the Mecca for the bay district, according to the committee's plans, with every attraction from fireworks to classical music to bring in the crowds.
Election of officers was the principal business of last night's meeting. President Harry G. Williams was re-elected for a third term. The other officers followed:
Vice-president: E. L. Vander Nallen; treasurer: J. C. Downer; secretary: Wilber Walker; directors: Louis Aber, Robert Mott, E. F. Muller, L. G. Banzagni, H. C. Coward, M. B. Morrison, F. B. Cook, H. E. Cornell, E. O. Myself, Timothy Dorgan, Robert Robertson, A. H. Schleuter, F. W. Sharpe, J. C. Downer, J. H. Davidson, William Ellis, C. J. Solari, W. J. Sears, C. H. J. Truman, E. L. New Easter Suit Can Be Had on Credit

From time immemorial Easter has been the one day in the year when every man wants to look his best and a new suit is most important. However, many men will be barred from customary new clothes this year because they do not happen to have the necessary amount of money on hand.
The PEERLESS TAILORS at 537 Twelfth street, between Washington and Clay, come to the aid of these men and offer to sell stylish spring suits on credit with terms of only $1 a week. They also make women's suits to order on the same liberal terms.
The PEERLESS TAILORS also have a branch at 39 Fifth street, S. F.—Advertisement.

ARREST EXPOSES HELP TO "SEERS"

Alleged Clairvoyant Had List of Dupes and Questions.

Through the arrest in San Francisco of "Professor" Herman Arno, alias E. Herman, alias Herman Henker, the police have learned of the methods of operation of the so-called Crystal Silence League, the notebooks in the possession of Professor Arno, notes connected with the names indicated the "wishes" of these women, as expressed in notes written to the seer, to be used as a demonstration of "mind reading." The "professor" had made an index of names of all these women, and was ready for the return of any of the women, ready with information, with which to surprise them.
No bit of information was too insignificant to be treasured by the magician. He realized that it is just these petty details that surprise people when a "mind-reading" test is made and the professor is able to deliver down into a woman's mind and inform her that she has lost a ring, or whether she will "always have to live in a rented house," or will at some future time know the joys and sorrows of having a real house on which she can be permitted to pay taxes and the interest on a mortgage.
"Professor" Arno was arrested at a hotel at Seventh and Mission streets on a charge of vagrancy, but papers found in his possession may lead, according to Deputy District Attorney Charles Brennan, to a more serious charge being filed.
The Crystal Silence League, according to Brennan, is merely a means of collecting information from people who are believers in the occult. The information is then used by the clairvoyants, magicians and seers to surprise their clients and as a basis for swindling them.
WOULD CONCEAL WALLET.
Arno tried to conceal the wallet containing his note book with information concerning dupes who had sought the seer's aid. Some of the notes were as follows:
"Mrs. Sarah Fickel asked 'which will be best for me to raise, turkeys for the market, or chickens, and sell their eggs?'"
"Mrs. Irene Pink: 'Is it to my advantage to sell my property now, or keep my house and lots longer?'"
"Mrs. Jennings: 'Where are my two sons?'"
"Mrs. Helen Hoover: 'Will my husband get the position he is working for?'"

Rates East Are to Be Cut by Railways

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—Transcontinental railroads today announced several freight rate reductions, caused by increased business through this city. The Southern Pacific opened negotiations for a new rate of 80 cents a hundred pounds on nickel from San Francisco to New York as it is expected large quantities of nickel will be shipped from Australia via this port.
The Southern Pacific also announced a reduction of the tariff on cattle shipments inside the state and the Santa Fe said it would generally reduce cattle rates in the San Joaquin valley, lowering them to a class B basis. The rate on pickled foods from California points to Arizona and New Mexico has been cut by the Santa Fe. This road reduced the price of scrap iron shipments from San Diego to San Francisco.

SEA HERO TO SET OUT ON SECRET TRIP

Veteran Fighter Pinta
Being Rigged Out for Voyage

Civil War Combatant Is to Sail From Estuary

Crash of grapeshot, the cries of powder-burned jacks in the thick of battle in the days of the Merrimac, and again the whistle of Arctic winds through her rigging as she plowed the northern seas in chase of seal hunters, there and a hundred and one other noble and stirring adventures, the United States gunboat Pinta came through before she retired, after fifty-one years' service, to her haven of rest on the Oakland flats.
And now the veteran fighter is being trained at her cozy anchorage as an old war hero, picks up his ears at the sound of a bugle. A new police assails her sturdy hull, the rattle of hydraulic hammers and the bustle of preparation of making her seaworthy again.

MISSION IS MYSTERY.
For the Pinta is to go back in commission, not as a fighting ship, but what she will be used for is a mystery, for her owner, W. A. Boole, will not divulge. Nothing less than a South Sea Island treasure hunt or a commission to whip the Mexican navy abridges the wishes of the vessel, which would fit in with the picturesque history of one of Uncle Sam's oldest gunboats.

When most wooden and even steel vessels as old as the Pinta would be long since consigned to the scrap heap, her iron hull has resisted successfully the ravages of buccaners from the sea, time and the rust of inactivity. Her hull is constructed of Norway iron, one of the most enduring of metals, and despite her age—she was built in Baltimore in 1866—the Pinta is in excellent condition.

WENT THROUGH BAND.
She went through the Civil war with the Northern battle fleet.
The Pinta was sent at the close of the war to Arctic waters as a patrol ship and took part in hunting down seal hunters. After being placed on the retired list, the vessel was sold and she was acquired by W. A. Boole. She was chartered to the Standard Oil company as an oil carrier. Even then her days of adventure were not over. On New Year's eve, 1912, she lay moored to the wharf at Point Richmond, when the vessel was tied aboard, a strange mishap happened to the old warlord.

SANK AT RICHMOND WHARF.
She was warped to the wharf at full tide, but no allowance had been made for the receding tide. The ropes with which the vessel was tied were not long enough to let her down as the tide went out, with the result that the Pinta heeled over and sank. Since she was raised she has lain in the Oakland estuary. The renewed activity on her decks is the cause of her being sent on the voyage, but her owner declares he does not care to say at present to what use the old craft will be put.

"Flapjack" Champion Wins; Ends in Jail

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—Neil Breslin can cook "flapjacks" better than any cook in town.
He proved it today, not over a cook stove, but right in the middle of the street.
William May and John Ryan, also cooks, disputed Breslin's championship claims.
"I can't cook flapjacks, can't I?" roared Breslin, drawing a gun and shooting twice.
"You bet you can," they admitted. And then Officers Gallagher, Tibbs and Cadden came along and took him to the city prison, where he can prove it to prisoners.

SAFE PLANS SAFETY MEETINGS.

Safety hearings, at which various claims are made for the prevention of accidents will be discussed, are planned by the Industrial Accident Commission for the bay region. In San Francisco meetings will be held for laundry workers, engine operators, elevator men, and other lines of mechanical business. These will take place from April 24 to April 27. Similar meetings will be held in Los Angeles.

BEARS STORY OF MURDERS BY BANDITS

Death of Oakland Man in Mexico Is Verified

J. H. Locke, Who Escaped, Tells of Outlaw Outrages

Details of the death of "David Bruce" believed to be the pen name of Donald McGregor, former Oakland newspaperman, have arrived in Oakland, casting further light on the murder of white men by Villistas in Mexico, and strengthening the opinion that "Bruce" was really McGregor. The report came from J. H. Locke, an American living in Mexico, who escaped on March 23, when Herman Blankenburg, a German, and the American writer were murdered.

Letters found on the American, relating to magazine stories he was seeking to write, bore the name McGregor, according to J. H. Locke. "The night of March 23," said Locke, in telling his story, "we three were in my hotel. Early in the morning, before daylight, we heard shouting and soon Carranza soldiers said that Villistas were attacking the town. This was the same night when the Carranza commander and San Isidro. The soldiers remained behind guarding the room where the Carranza commander resided in our hotel and which he left at the moment to take command of his troops. I and two other men, who came to my room, that we must get away immediately before daylight. Blankenburg said he would not leave, that he was a German with nothing to fear. Bruce seemed to be in fear, but decided not to risk going out. So I started alone."

PASSED THROUGH BAND.
The Villistas were riding through the streets fighting Carranza troops when they encountered them, and shooting wildly the rest of the time. The moon was in its last quarter, so that there was considerable light to see by. I carried my pistol ready, but never had to use it. By a freak of good fortune I passed through the entire band of Villistas without one of them catching sight of me.

"The next day I hid out and two days later a Mexican friend brought me news of the deaths of Blankenburg and Bruce. I learned that they had been shot together in my office, which faced the street, until about 8 in the morning. The thick adobe walls protected them. Then Blankenburg decided that he would go to the hotel kept by Richard Brinkley, another German. Taking his valise, Blankenburg thrust it into the street. Just at that moment a Villista rode past. Without warning, this Villista struck Blankenburg over the head with his sword, splitting it half way to the neck. As Blankenburg fell the Villista shot him in the face.

VILLISTAS WIN.
"All this occurred before the door of my room had been closed, so that the Villistas, after striking Blankenburg, looked up and saw me standing by my room. The soldier raised his rifle and fired, killing Bruce with two shots through the breast."

"The Mexicans were afraid to bury either of the foreigners while Villistas remained in town. Meanwhile the pigs in the street were threatening to murder Blankenburg's body beyond recognition. A Mexican who knew Blankenburg had his little boy sit on the doorstep in front of the body with a pile of rocks handy to keep the pigs away."

"The Villistas left early in the forenoon. Then the Mexicans buried the two hurriedly, but they did not fare have any ceremony. They just tumbled both bodies into a trench along with some dead Mexicans. I don't know how many Mexican dead were there."

"Before I left the hotel in Mexico I knew the Villistas had won the fight, because we heard a drum beating. The Carranza soldiers in the hotel said the Carranzistas at Mexico had no drum to beat, and that the noise was in celebration of a Villa victory."

LETTERS AS PROOF.
The Don McGregor referred to in the letters found on Bruce is believed to be one of the men who served with the Federal Industrial Relations Commission under Frank Walsh of Kansas City. He was also said to be a New York correspondent of the Minneapolis News. Some of McGregor's letters were from J. R. Walker of Denver. Another was from W. M. Lessor of Chicago. Some of the letters referred to "Walsh and the commission."

They did not disclose why McGregor was in Mexico. They made reference to magazine stories which had been refused.

A New Combination for Wearers of Glasses

With advancing years come new improvements in nearly all lines of endeavor and a local optical company is in a very fortunate position in being able to supply a new and improved line of glasses with a new and noteworthy combination, namely "Caltex Onepiece" bifocals mounted in "Equipolse" eyeglasses. These new "Caltex" double vision lenses do away with the necessity of two pairs of glasses as reading and distance corrections are ground in one lens. The "Equipolse" eyeglasses automatically holds these wonderful lenses in perfect alignment before the eyes, insuring the best possible results. Remember the combination—"Equipolse" Eyeglasses and "Caltex" lenses. To be had at the three establishments of the California Optical Co., 1221 Broadway, Oakland, 181 Post street and 2503 Mission street, San Francisco.—Adv.

JAPAN SEEKS CONTROL OF THE PACIFIC

Shippers' Organization to Hold Steamship
Lines and Trade

Big Business Merger Is Planned to Carry Out Project

The Japanese are about to organize a trust or combination to control shipping and retain their present supremacy of the Pacific according to reports to the U. S. Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, issued today. These reports are from the Japan Chronicle, which, citing the fact that the Pacific service is now in the hands of Japanese steamship companies, states that representatives of these latter have been in conference in Tokyo regarding the steps to be taken to extend and insure the practical monopoly of the service hereafter, especially after the conclusion of the war. According to the Asahi of Osaka, another leading journal, they have agreed upon the expediency of forming in effect, if not in name, a freight line.

Manufacturers Given
Choice of Coupons Use

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Manufacturers of snuff, tobacco, cigars and cigarettes face the choice of leaving out gift certificates in all shipments, including those to states which have passed laws prohibiting the practice.

The treasury department in an order made public today holds that unless such cards or coupons are included in all shipments regardless of destination, no practice comes within the law forbidding lotteries, because consumers in localities where premiums are omitted would not have the same opportunity to obtain valuable prizes as those in more favored localities.

RATE REVISION REFUSED.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The Sioux Falls, N. D., Commercial Club's petition for general revision of all freight rates on the Great Northern railway from Duluth, Minn., and Superior, Wis., to Sioux Falls, was denied today by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

trust for the purpose in conjunction with shippers of important goods such as cotton, raw silk and tea, and are now considering details of such a scheme.

Plans for new corporations and for extending the scope of those already in the field in Japan are reported by several newspapers of that country including the Japan Chronicle and Japan Advertiser. Among the projects are the formation of a large steel merger, a new $1,000,000 machinery company, new shipbuilding yard, additional paper-pulp factories and a combination of shipping companies.

STEEL TRUST ALSO.
Several prominent business men are projecting the formation of large steelworks with capital of not less than 100,000,000 yen ($49,550,000), according to statements in the Mainichi, quoted by the Chronicle. The purpose, as suggested in the reports, is to combine the private works already existing and those under flotation and establish a large steelworks merger, in view of the advantages of the concentration of capital in this line of industry.

NEW DOCK YARD.
The Japan Advertiser says it is reported that a shipbuilding yard promoted by several business men is being established in the compound of the Yokohama Dockyard Co., as a sort of joint undertaking between the dockyard company and these business men. Of the capital of the proposed undertaking, which is fixed at between $1,224,000 and $1,496,000, some 70 per cent will be taken by the promoters and 30 per cent by the dockyard company, subject to the issue of negotiations.

PLAN NEW MILLS.
It is predicted that the paper-milling industry of the country will attain complete independence of all outside assistance if all the new enterprises in Hokkaido and Khabulito accomplish what they are attempting. Four pulp factories are either in existence or in the making, and if their plans are completed as originally planned, the Japan Advertiser says, all will be in full operation by April of next year, when the total turnover of the mills will reach a point of 50,000 tons a year.

Has anyone some old pieces of hose which could be patched together, or a lawn mower which is no longer needed? If so, we would like to know, for we know of a place where it could be put to splendid use by a very worthy party.

We would like to give it to a man who has been very kind to this bureau and has assisted us in carrying on this work on various occasions. We think turn about is fair play, don't you, and that it is no more than right to show this man that his efforts to help make this work a success have been appreciated? We know that he is unable to purchase the hose and lawn mower, for he, like those he has been helping, is without money. Perhaps you are wondering how a person without money could assist in this work, but we might tell you that his assistance has been in the way of collecting clothes and delivering same to those in need. As mentioned, he is a very worthy party, and his, as well as this bureau, will be very grateful for anything you can do for him.

A poor old lady who has been in the hospital for some time has just returned to her little home to find that she has no bed waiting for her. It seems that while she was gone, her house caught on fire and was partly destroyed, the bed being one of the things that were burned. "Think of it, folks, coming out of the hospital sick and weak and then finding her little home partly destroyed and her bed burned! This old woman is unable to buy another bed, for it has taken all of her scrimping and saving to pay her doctor and hospital bill. Poor old soul, imagine being ill and having nothing to rest her weary body on. May be you have a bedstead; maybe someone else could give the springs, and perhaps a third party could give the mattress or some bedding. With all of our efforts combined, we ought to be able to get this woman another bed, and we mean to do it if such a thing is possible.

What a little thing it takes to give a lot of happiness. The little bed that we told you about in last night's paper as wanting a "dollar" is the happiest youngster in Oakland today. This morning she was made a present of a doll which was sent to this bureau by some unknown Good Fellow.

We only wish that we could print a picture of this child as she looked this morning, holding the doll lovingly in her arms, and looking down on it as fondly as a mother looks at her new-born babe. The "dollar," which had a wig that corresponded nicely to the snarled, tangled little curls of the child, looked perfectly contented and peaceful as she rested in the arms of her new mother. If the doll had any tears to shed, the treatment she would receive at new hands they vanished quickly under the tender embrace and loving smile which was bestowed upon her.

For the benefit of the little girl who so willingly gave up her doll to make a sister happy, we wish to assure her that the doll will certainly receive all the love and affection that it is possible for a little "4-year-old" to give.

A couch and some linoleum is to be presented to the widow with four children, about whom we told you last night. But the thing which we thought we were to have the least trouble in obtaining, has turned out to be the hardest. This is the linoleum. It won't take a very large place to cover a table, and things taste much better when they are eaten

"THE BLUE BIRD FOR

"Heads up, work hard, keep smiling and lend a hand"—such is the motto of the Blue Bird Bureau, The TRIBUNE'S Department of Good Fellowship. To show people who are willing to help others just how to go about it without putting a tax on any one, to provide happiness safely without publicity, to make life brighter and give childhood its birthright—that is the purpose of the Blue Bird Bureau. DRUGGISTS IN EVERY STATE RELY ON THIS
KIDNEY MEDICINE

We have been handling Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root for twelve years and during that time we have not received a single complaint from those who have used it, all speak in the highest terms of the good results obtained from its use. We know of cases of Catarrh or Inflammation of the Bladder and Liver trouble where Swamp-Root proved very valuable. One old lady 80 years old will not be without Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. We believe it is a very good medicine in the diseases for which it is intended.

Dispatches From Front Make No Mention of Nani-quimpa Battle.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Reports of a battle between troops of the Seventh cavalry and Villa bandits south of Nani-quimpa were not mentioned in the war department's early dispatch today and there was no further mention of the report of the death of Villa.

Major General Funston reported the progress of a new plan of sending supplies forward to General Pershing's columns. A trial shipment of forage has been sent over the Mexican Central line, which has a more direct route to Chihuahua than the Mexican Northwestern, which has carried some shipments.

Conditions on the west coast, particularly in the vicinity of Mazatlan, said there was a feeling of hostility developing against Carranza officials there which might precipitate trouble. Consular officers at Mazatlan and nearby points are advising Americans to return to the United States.

Wall Street Continues Waiting Attitude and Dullness

NEW YORK, April 12.—The Street continued its waiting attitude today and the market duplicated yesterday's unsatisfactory session, with the dullness intensified.

Aside from a little commission house liquidation influenced by a heavy tone dealings were professional and the market was influenced by the same uncertainty in German-American diplomatic exchanges.

The irregular and hesitant opening was followed by a general reaction, which resulted in losses of one point or more in specialties like Crucible Steel, Baldwin Locomotion, Goodrich Tire, Mercantile Machine, preferred, Maxwell Motors, Industrial Alcohol and Auto and Superior.

Steel started fractionally lower and was extremely dull.

Railways displayed no vitality and as a rule were heavy.

Stocks were fairly well taken on declines and the market hardened, but there was nothing betokening a strong recovery.

Trading degenerated to a monotonous round of trifling movements in a limited number of properties.

The bond and investment division was dull in sympathy.

STOP! CALOMEL IS QUICKSILVER

It's Mercury! Attacks the Bones, Salivates and Makes You Sick.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when 50 cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can't salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tonic, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tonic instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tonic acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.—Advertisement.

CALLED SLAIN MAN'S WIDOW HIS WIFE?

Such Is Testimony Adduced in Murder Trial at Stockton.

That Charles Holman, charged with the murder of William C. Chambers, introduced Chambers' wife as his own, in his Oakland home, in the testimony of Ray Miller, Holman's "pal," on the stand in the trial being held at Stockton. The Oakland man and Mrs. Margaret Chambers are charged jointly with the murder of Chambers, whose body was found in Stockton channel. Miller said that shortly before the murder, Holman had given him a note to carry to Chambers at Modesto, warning him to leave the state to avoid prosecution on a white slavery charge.

Miller also declared that Holman had informed him that "Lele (meaning Mrs. Chambers) would give anything to be rid of her husband."

Miller and Holman were lured to Stockton, after the discovery of the murder, by a decoy telegram, and Miller was held some time as a suspected accomplice, being finally released. His testimony against Holman is the most dramatic brought out so far in the trial. Miller declared that Holman and the Chambers woman addressed each other as "Honey" and "Sweetheart," and used other endearing terms.

Melted Money Is Sold at Profit

Japs Create Change Famine in China

PEKING, April 12.—Since the occupation of Tsin-tau by the Japanese, traders from Japan have flocked into Shan-tung province in large numbers and have begun trading operations in centers where they have no treaty rights. Many of these traders are collecting old copper cash, the Chinese coins which have holes in the center and are carried on strings, and are melting the coins down and selling the copper at a big profit. Traffic in the Chinese copper cash is going on in many parts of China, regardless of the central government's regulations forbidding the exportation of cash.

Seventy thousand pieces of copper cash were recently seized by Chinese officials on a train at Tsing-tung in Central Manchuria. This money was concealed in trunks checked by Japanese. The cash is shipped to Shanghai or to Japanese ports where it is melted down and brings a high price because of the scarcity of copper.

In Peking and the more important commercial centers on the railways in China, cash is used only by the Chinese. The rate of exchange varies greatly in different places. Ordinarily a copper cash is worth one cent. The cent is a coin without a hole in it, and the ratio of the cent values to the Mexican dollar is at present about one hundred and thirty-five to one. Consequently one Mexican dollar will purchase one thousand three hundred and fifty copper cash in the larger centers. The rate generally is even better for the copper dealers in the remote sections.

China is experiencing a money famine. The price of silver is extremely high. Gold is seldom seen, and the onslaughts the copper dealers are making on the supply of copper cash complicate the situation still further.

THE CAUSE OF ANAEMIA

It is universally known that iron is a very important element of the blood, and lack of it is the direct cause of run-down conditions and anemia. It may interest our readers to know that The Owl Drug Co. of this town, have in Vinol a reliable, constitutional remedy for such conditions. Vinol supplies iron to the blood in its most soluble state, then there's the nourishing properties of beef peptone and the medicinal curative extracts of fresh cod livers, without oil, all dissolved in a pure native tonic wine. That's what makes Vinol so successful in overcoming run-down and anemic conditions. P. S.—In your own town, wherever you live, there's a Vinol drug store. Look for the sign.—Advertisement.

Thin People Gained Weight Quickly

By Following This Simple Suggestion
Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "fat" here, "fat" should try eating a little Sargol with their meals for while and see results. Here is a good test worth trying. First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—one tablet with every meal—for two weeks. Then weigh and measure again. It isn't a question of how you look or feel or what your friends say and think. Sargol works and the tape measure will tell their own story. And many thin men and women we believe can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction. And, best of all, the new flesh stays put.
Sargol does not of itself make fat, but mixing with your food, it aims to turn the fat, sugar and starches of what you have eaten into rich, ripe, fat-producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prepare it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. Much of this nourishment now passes from your body as waste. But Sargol works and stops the waste and do it quickly, and to make the fat-producing contents of the very same meals you are eating now develop pounds and pounds of healthy flesh between your skin and bones. Sargol is safe, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive. Osgood Bros. Drug Store and other leading druggists in this vicinity sell it in large boxes—forty tablets to a package—on a guarantee of weight increase or money back as found in each large box.—Advertisement.

STATE'S ROMANCE AS ADVERTISEMENT

Use History to Draw Visitors, Is the Suggestion of College Expert.

Urging that the romance and myths of California be heralded broadcast throughout the country, as Europe has done for its historic places, Professor Herbert B. Bolton, head of the department of American history at the University of California, addressed the members of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday at their luncheon in the Hotel Oakland, and told of advertising the state through its history.

Professor Bolton traced the discovery of San Francisco bay and of the first party of explorers to set foot on the soil of what is now Oakland and Berkeley. The romances and history of early California were written by New Englanders, and should be changed, the university savant told Oakland's business men. "They gave only a scant idea of the state, obtained through hasty observations. It was not until the University of California came into existence that the state could be traced," Professor Bolton continued.

"During the early centuries before the discovery of California it was believed that the state was a land of the Terrestrial Paradise; and that it was peopled by black women, without any man among them, for they lived in the fashion of the Amazons. They were strong and hardy, bold, of ancient courage and of great force. The island was the strongest in the world, with its steep cliffs and rock shores. Their arms were of gold and so was the harness of the wild beasts they tamed to ride, for in the whole island there was no metal but gold."

"California legends were one of the principal obstacles in causing the tardiness of the discovery of San Francisco bay, and it was to such an extent that they delayed its finding until 227 years after the discovery of Drake's bay and a century and a half after San Diego bay had been discovered," said Professor Bolton. "At first San Francisco bay was but a cumbersome holding for Spain and it was not until years passed that it became a center of commerce for the Spanish galleys. This was caused through the pursuit of geographical myths, history, romance, political ambition of Spain and the fear of Russian invasion through the Bering Sea."

The discovery and settlements around the bay were of long process, according to the data furnished by Professor Bolton in the archives of Mexico, which gave a description of the first expedition of white men upon the soil of what is now Alameda county. The discovery was made by an unknown author relating how six soldiers and one mulatto under the command of Don Pedro Fages, lieutenant of the volunteers of Catalonia, set out on an expedition from Monterey and discovered San Pablo bay and near the bay white men to enter the bounds of Alameda county.

EXPEDITION IN 1770.
"The expedition set out on the morning of November 21, 1770," said Bolton, "traveling across medium sized hills and low lands of fertile soil. On the second day they crossed the Carmelo river and through thickly grown groves of alders. They saw many bear's trails in the thickets but of the heathens, only the one they were following."

"On November 25 the small party came to a village of heathens who at first fled upon sighting them, but by the dint of their coaxing succeeded in bringing them back to camp, where they bestowed upon the heathens beads and ribbons."

"Near Hayward and San Leandro other villages of heathens were reached and so the expedition continued to wend its way, passing the present site of Oakland and to a hill top back of the home of President Benjamin L. Wheeler of the university, where they sighted San Pablo bay."

Professor Bolton as a representative of the University of California praised the Native Sons of the Golden West in behalf of the college for the valuable work that they have done in promoting the history of California and restoring its landmarks.

Vocational Education Topic of Discussion

"Vocational Education" as Walter A. Tenney seen its uses and the "Gover System" from the point of view of Miss Blanche Morse interested the Oakland Club this afternoon during the interludes of an exceptionally fine musical program, given by Miss Roxana Wiebe, pianist. Besides the piano numbers, Semann-Lizzi's "Liebesleid" and the "Gollywog's Cuckoo" of De Bussey, vocal solos were given by Mrs. Clara Farrell, Mrs. Ripley, violin, and Mrs. Anna Metz, accompanist.

The reception committee was headed by Mrs. J. Schwartz, chairman, and included Mrs. John Newton Porter, Mrs. Robert Louis Hill, Mrs. Nellie Nelson, Mrs. John Nicholson, Mrs. A. T. McDonald, Mrs. J. C. Petray, Mrs. Samuel Silva, Mrs. Frank Bush, Mrs. John Ronald.

Boxer Enlists; Will Fight for Uncle Sam

Prize fighting doesn't pay any more. So declares Harry Wilson, Philadelphia boxer, who yesterday decided that he would rather fight Mexicans and Indians at the Oakland recruiting station. Wilson, who is 21 years of age, had achieved some reputation as a fighter in the East, and came to Oakland to meet several of the local champions.

In the meantime he read of the Mexican situation, decided that as a soldier he would be more useful than as a prize fighter, and so applied to Sergeant Ernest Baker for enlistment.

"There will be a regular pay check, a chance to travel—and it's putting what fighting ability I may have to some real use," he declared. "So for Mexico."

County Display Brings Trade to Exhibitors

The seed display maintained in the Alameda county exhibit at Los Angeles has proved one of the biggest attractions in the entire Los Angeles exhibition, according to a report issued today by Custodian John C. Hayes. As the result of the exhibit a large volume of business has been done by the county exhibitors, and the seed exhibit was recently described in a large illustrated article on the front page of one of the big Los Angeles dailies.

Superintendent H. H. Hecox is planning several additions to the exhibit, according to his report to the Exposition Commission. Fred Parsons, factory expert, is planning a factory display to supplement the county's showing in the south.

Pardoned Convict Is Accused of Crimes

PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—Bartholomew Rull, who, according to government agents, has served more than 20 years for counterfeiting in various sections of the country, and was pardoned February 16 by President Wilson after he had served two years of a six-year sentence for counterfeiting in Kentucky, was arrested in this city last night charged with passing counterfeit silver dollars.

Seven bonus dollars were found in minutes. Sentence was deferred.
